

WORTHINGTON SPEECH CLASSES

present

THREE
ONE-ACT PLAYS

Worthington Elementary Auditorium

February 25, 1946

8:00 p.m.

Director	-----	Miss Eleanor Baum
Publicity Manager	-----	Margaret Schneider
Stage Manager	-----	Ray Sunderland
Assistant Stage Manager	-----	Earl Nash
Lighting Effects	-----	Carl Clements
Book Holder	-----	Betty Pfefferle

Fourth Period Class
presents

"PIG OF MY DREAMS"
by Spranger Barry

Scene: The kitchen of Jimmy Barrett's farmhouse on a winter afternoon.

Aranintha McGovern ----- Sally Loos

Jimmy Barrett----- Jack Reynolds

Mr. Clandon ----- Sam Harsh

Jane Clandon ----- Carolyn Nelson

Mrs. Clandon ----- Cynthia Detrick

Property Mistress ----- Joan Springer

Music for the evening furnished by Ken Grubb and his Orchestra, consisting of Russ Hill, Ken Kayner, Fred Caley and Hubert Gardener

"JACOB COMES HOME"

BY

William Kozlemko

Scene: Berlin, Germany in the years just preceeding World War II, in the early evening in the Braun residence.

Magda Braun ----- Fritzie Brake

Liese Braun ----- Toni East

Hulda ----- Jane Joseph

Joseph Braun ----- Jack Pruden

Rudolf ----- David Norman

Guard ----- Perry Strickland

Produced by special arrangements with the Row-Peterson Publishing Company.

Make-up for "Jacob Comes Home" by Mr.
and Mrs. Frank Corbin.

Third Period Class
presents

"THE BRIDE WORE RED PYJAMAS"

by
Harold J. Kennedy

Scene: The living room of a house on Beacon Hill, on an afternoon in late April.

Benson ----- Elmer Gausman

Virginia ----- Donna Johnson

Mrs. Rickter ----- Barbara Bender

Lord Percy ----- Ken Kayner

Gerry Wilson ----- John Hagerty

Property Mistress ----- Ada Lloyd

Ushers: Barbara Brundige, Betty King, Joan Nesser, Ada Mayall, Grace Hulls, Pat Kerr.