INTRODUCTION

We take pleasure in presenting the first Directory ever compiled of Worthington, Ohio, and trust that the information given in this book will prove of value to all its readers.

That the town has made a most substantial growth in recent years is noted in the comparison of the present population of 1228 persons, as against the 1920 Government census, which lists Worthington at 705.

In making the directory, we have also included Worthington Proper, or in other words the names of 335 persons who reside slightly over the corporation line, but are in reality citizens of the village. These names which the reader will find marked with an *, brings the population of Worthington proper up to 1563.

For the further information of our readers we are herewith listing a number of street names legally changed by petition to the Village Council in July, 1928. They are:

Dunlap Street, also called South Street,	to	South Street
Short Street, also called Temple Avenue,	to	Short Street
North Street, also called Edgewood Avenue,	to	North Street
High Street, also called Main Street,	to	High Street
Bristol Street, also called Mt. Vernon Avenue,	to	Mt. Vernon Avenue
State Street, also called Granville Road,	to	Granville Road
Morning Street, also called Granby Street,	to	Morning Street
Pearl Street, also called Oxford Street,	to	Oxford Street
Berlin Street, also called New England Avenue,	to	New England Avenue
Evening Street, also called Pioneer Street,	to	Evening Street
Marble Street, also called Stafford Avenue,	to	Stafford Avenue

BRIEF FACTS ABOUT WORTHINGTON

Population July, 1928, inside corporation limits, 1228; Worthington proper, 1563

Location, 9 miles north of Columbus, Ohio, on High Street.

Founded in 1803 by James Kilbourne.

Missed being Capital of State by one vote in the Legislature.

Post Office established in 1807, with Nathaniel Little as first Postmaster.

Incorporated, 1835 with James Kilbourne, as first Mayor.

Elevation, at Public Square, 884.35 feet, approximately 105 feet higher than the State House grounds at Columbus.

Area, approximately one square mile.

Has beautiful park of six acres in the center of the village.

Has the oldest Masonic Institution, after the one in Marietta in the historic New England Lodge No. 4. It was organized June 28, 1808. Royal Arch Chapter, Horeb Chapter, No. 3, was organized here, December 18, 1815. Mt. Vernon Commandery No. 1 of Knights Templar and appendant orders was instituted in Worthington, March 15, 1818. This was the first dispensation granted by the General Grand Encampment of the United States, first Encampment of the Order West of the Allegheny Mountains.

Has the oldest Episcopal church west of the Allegheny Mountains, and was founded Feb. 3, 1804, by Rev. James Kilbourne and his associates of the Scioto Land Co.

1928 school enumeration, 485.

Has 40 minute street car service to and from Columbus.

Electric light and power service supplied by the Columbus Railway, Light and Power Co.

Natural gas furnished by the Columbus Gas and Fuel Co.

Has two electric lines, the Columbus-Worthington car line, and the C. D. & M. Also two steam roads, the Pennsylvania and the Big Four.

Municipal Fire Department.

Municipal water works, with deep wells furnishing pure drinking water.

Has three beautiful church edifices, excellent schools, and a Public Library.

Has a weekly newspaper, an active chamber of Commerce, fine homes, modern stores and other enterprising business institutions.

Known as a splendid trading center.

Has a citizenship of 99% American born.

Wide streets and abundance of shade trees.

Unsurpassed for beautiful homesites.

Clean, pure air, free from dust and smoke.

A most healthful and delightful place to live.

Town motto: "There's Worth in Worthington"
