STUDENT COUNCIL

Left to right: Jim Hill, Kenneth Storer, Ed Hard, Joe Shurtz, Bernard Cellar, Frank Truitt, Char Hoag, Clara Snyder.

We think Worthington High is noted for the freedom and informality. The co-operation of the student council, with the faculty, has been an important factor in giving our school these privileges.

We, the seniors and undergraduates, wish to express our thanks, and sincere hope that this attitude may be carried on to function like it has in 1941-42. Long live student government and Democracy!

The members of the student council are chosen from each club and class, and serve for one year. Clara Snyder was automatically chosen president, being the president of the senior class.

The council has sponsored various activities, the most prominent of these were skating parties, Capital Men's Glee Club, and Vocational Guidance Day.

STUDENT COURT

Our student court has performed admirably this year; there were eight members that handed down the fatal decision on the accused.

They were chosen by popular vote of the student body. The four seniors, Converse, Pruden, Snyder, and Snowden, were automatically chosen from last year's court, the remaining members were voted on by the student body.

The principal objective of the court is to make the decisions, and discipline those who fail to cooperate, with the student body.

The student who fails to cooperate in any way, will go before the court, and he will be warned. If he appears in court the second time, he will receive a demerit and will be sentenced and find. Fines consist of custodian duty, or writing 500 to 1000 word essays.

EARL WHITSEL

Hi-Y-4

Hey, Uncle Sam, I'm asking you,
 What can a high school kid do?
 We stand so straight and hold our tongue
 You'd never guess we were so young.
 We've walked the town and had our fun
 And now we're asking for a post
 Where we can serve you best and most.
 Don't ask us our weight of years
 Just take us on as we appear
 Wherever we can fight the foe

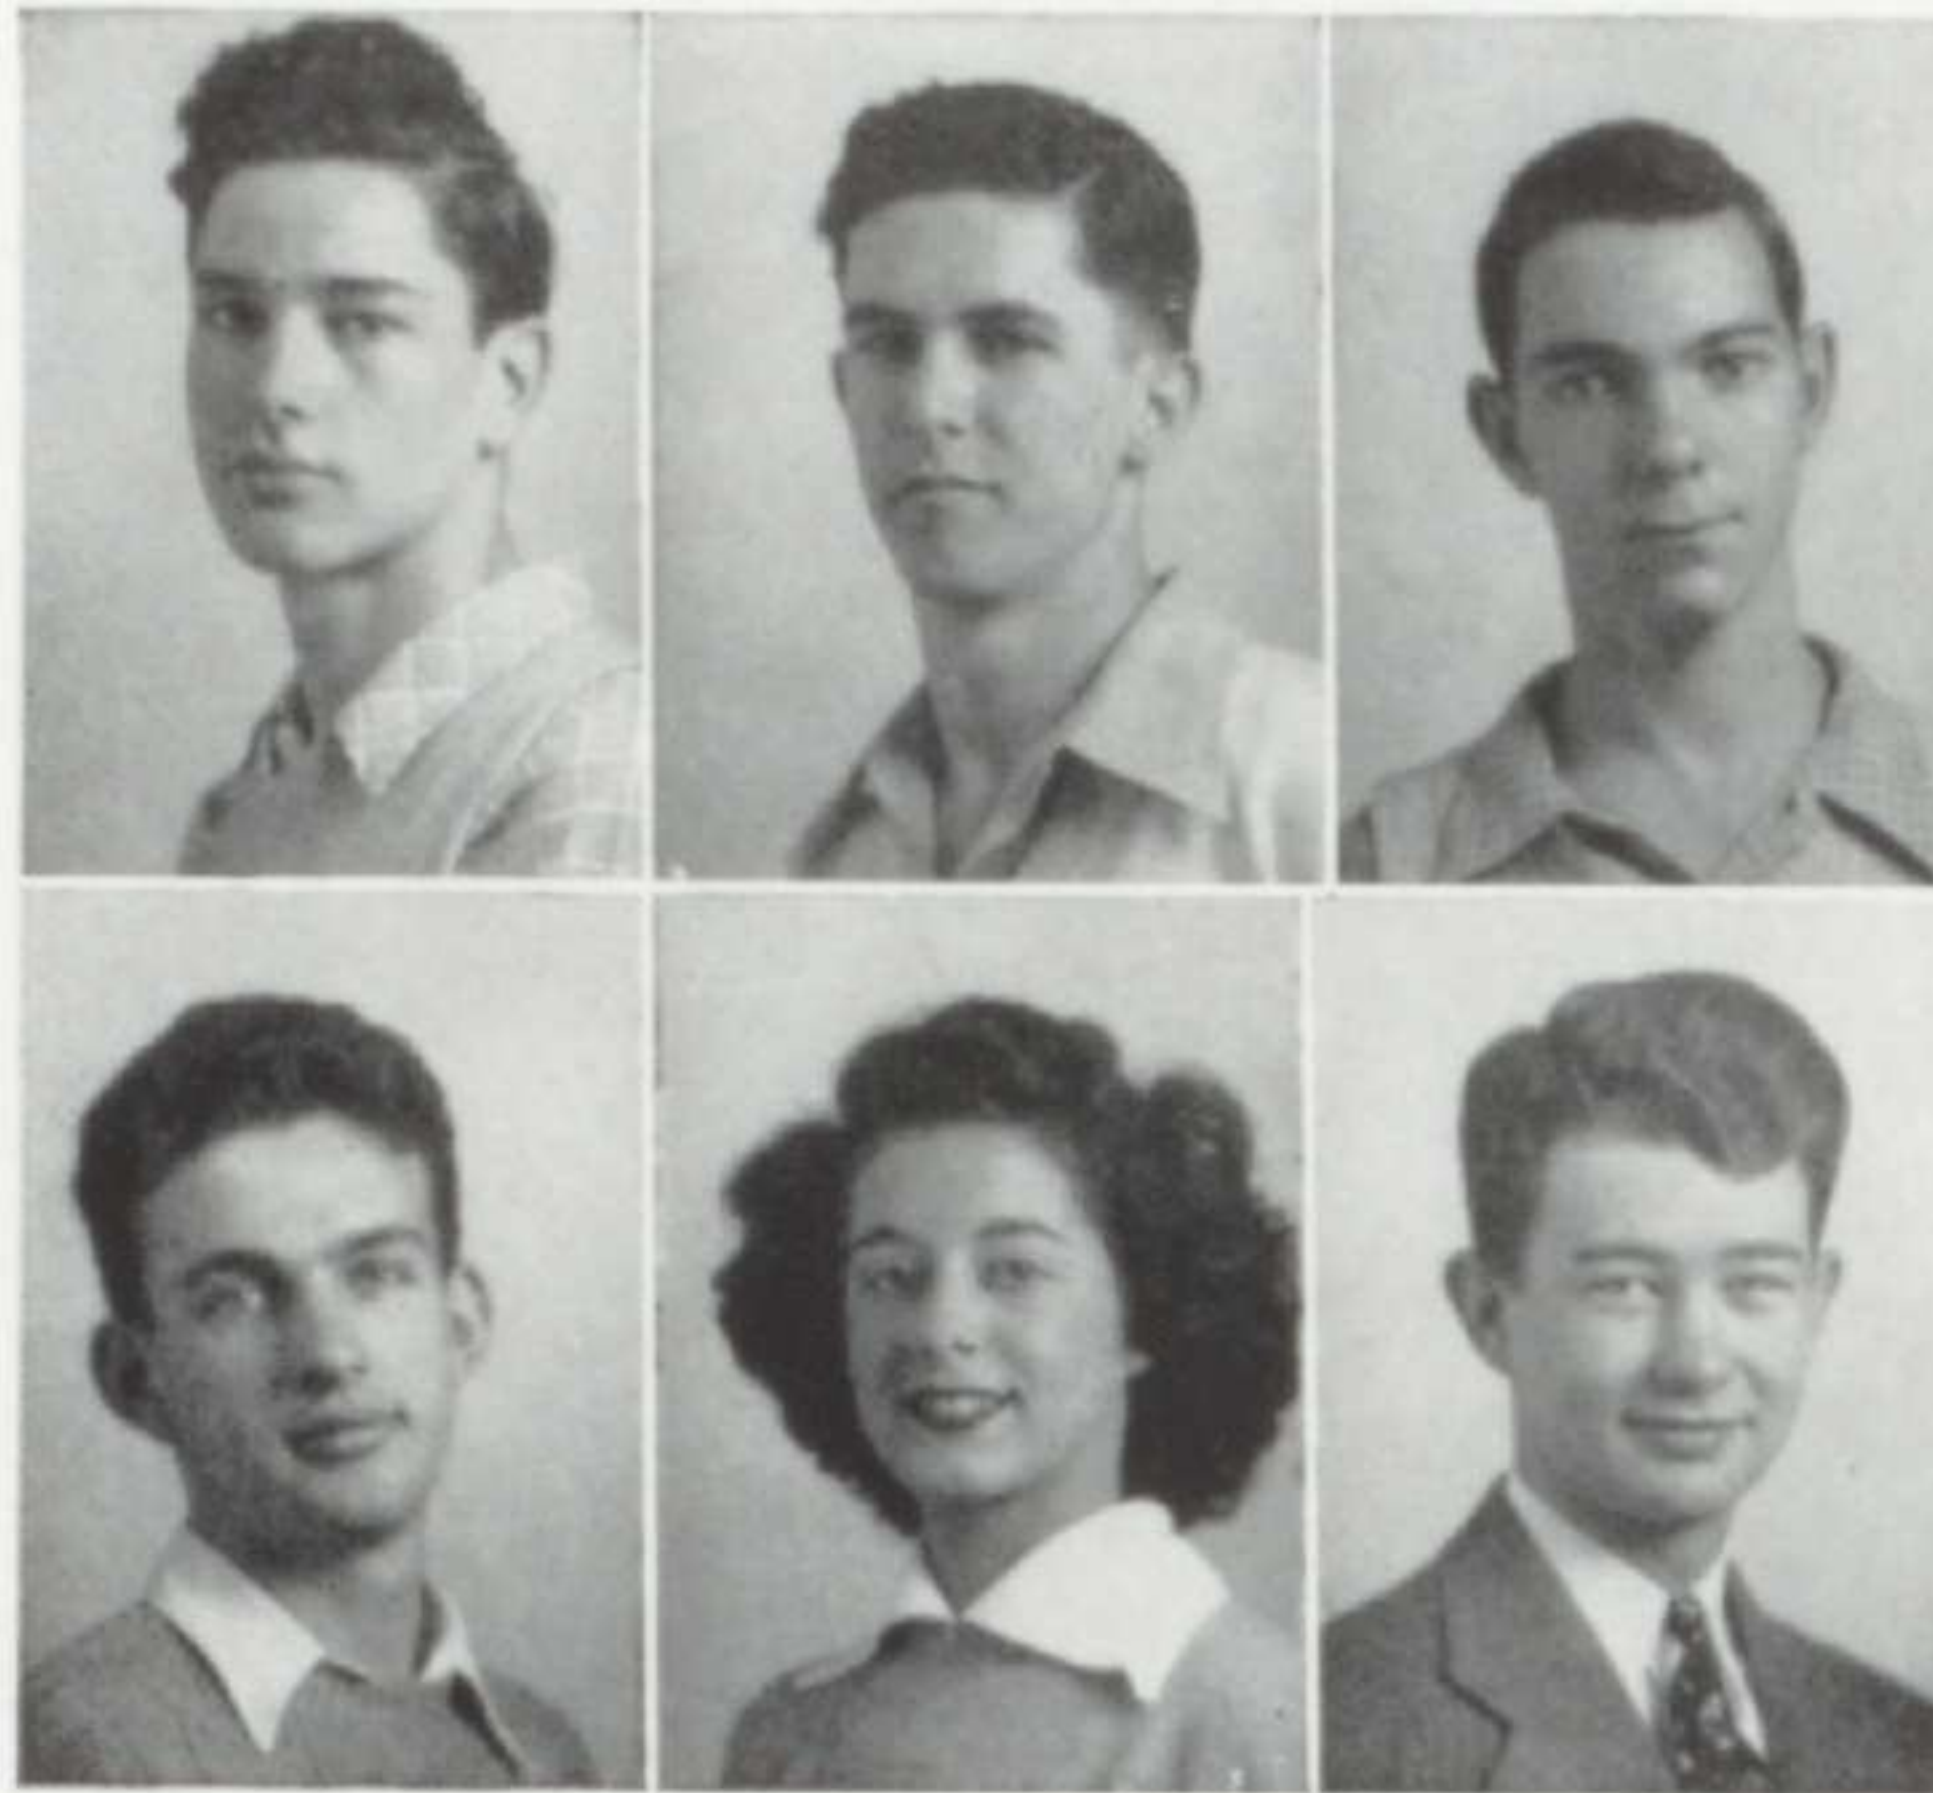

We'll promptly pack our grip and go
 Why not—though it may strike you odd
 Enlist at once our high school squad.
 We'll fight, we'll work, we'll do the chores,
 Serve any need that may be yours,
 Believe us, we're old enough to be
 Defenders of Democracy!
 A little short of wind perhaps
 But wind enough to beat the Japs!

—Helen Merriman.

HI-Y

The Hi-Y of 1942 was a great success. Twenty new members were initiated, which started the year off in great style.

At our first formal meeting we started considering projects, the following were chosen and completed by the end of the year.

Projects: Tennis courts, Annual, P.T.A. Paper Project, Flag Pole for Football Field, 16mm. Camera, Hi-Y Dances.

Under the capable leadership of "Doc" Pyle and Schurtz our club functioned fashionably, thus leaving a challenge to new officers and members of 1942-43 to carry on as was started under Mr. Pyle's leadership. To "Doc" Pyle, who is largely responsible for our success in all our projects, we respectfully dedicate this page.

May good fortune be with "Doc" always.

Our Senior class is noted for its ability to work together harmoniously, a fact to which this class play well testifies. SPRING FEVER was a production which showed the excellent directing done by Mr. Pyle and Miss Fetter, the fine acting done by the cast, the smooth functioning of the production committees and most important (in spite of to nature of the title) the hard work of all concerned.

This year the Junior Class presented the mystery-comedy play, "A Full House", under the direction of Miss Beatrice Fetter. The members of the cast pictured above are Bob Chadeayne, Pat Conover, Don Gill, Edward Hard, Lynn Jackson, Don Lindimore, Mary Ann Menaul, Martha Neds, Denzel Porter, Janis Sargent, Kathleen Taylor, Elaine Todd, Junior Winnett, and Robert Wright.

A great deal of credit for the success of the play goes to the various committees such as stage crew, properties, ticket sales and others. The audience's enjoyment of the evening was increased by the playing of the High School Orchestra before the play and between the acts.

DEBATE

SPEECH CLASS

DRAMATICS PLAY "SPARKIN"

DEBATE—Front row, (left to right): Pence, Howard, Snyder. Second row, (left to right): Mays, Weiler, Snowden.

ORACLE STAFF

First row: Howard, Sells, Snowden.
Second row: Roller, Weiler, Hoag, Snyder, Snouffer.

One of the provisions of our great Bill of Rights is freedom of the press, one of the many parts of Democracy which we learn to appreciate here in Worthington High School.

This year's editor of The Oracle, Jean Weiler, assistant editor, Carolyn Sells and the other members of the Oracle staff, typists, reporters and feature writers who are always indispensable to a newspaper, have kept the tradition of the Oracle faithfully by bringing news of the activities of the school to the community.

SCHOLARSHIP TEAM

"Oh me", was a very familiar expression around Worthington High School on the Scholarship test days. The honor of being able to compete with other schools is given to all pupils with high scholastic standings. Lots of hard work, but lots of fun. About three geni from each class went down fresh as daisies and came back wilted. The pause that refreshes brought them back to life. No lives were lost.

FRANKLIN HONOR SOCIETY

Worthington members are: Ruth Howard, Florence Snowden, Clara Snyder, Don O'Brien, Robert Shuster, Ronald Dill, Bonnie Boller, Pat Lewis, Mary Alice Roller, Patty Collmer, Janice Snouffer, Kathleen Taylor, Martha Neds, Carolyn Solls, Lynn Thomas, Emmet Nesser, Morton Wooley.

The Franklin Honor Society consists of students from the county schools who are chosen for their Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service. The members must be Juniors or Seniors in high school. Worthington has seventeen members; it is a great honor to be selected as a member of this society. Ruth Howard served as County President this past year.

Our Worthington Cardinals lost most of their games this year but this does not mean we have had an unsuccessful season. Sportmanship, fair play and honor have been impressed in the minds of our boys. It has taken both courage and pride to go to this victory. We are proud and glad that we can recognize our boys as true winners. Good luck next year.

Worthington's Reserves Cagers were Franklin County Champs. We're very proud of them and we hope that in future years they'll carry on for W.H.S. Not bad, little men! Swell trophy, too!

GOLF AND TENNIS

For five successive years the golf team has been county champs. In 1938 they were State Champs and in 1939 they were county champs and District Runner-up. We hope that the fellows will get back in the state this season and make a real scrap of it. Veterans of the last season are Schurtz, Snouffer, and Truitt.

Tennis is in its infancy at W.H.S. Although last season was not very successful much experience was gained, and we know the team is going to profit by their previous experiences. Veterans from last season are Baker, Griggs, and Howard. Good Luck, fellows!

FAREWELL ANE GOOD LUCK

To the Class of 1942

And as life's race is run,
You will look back to school as fun.
In the race of life you live,
And you reap only from the effort you give.

Capital assets are not all the wealth,
Many are happier with friends and health.
So, give your best, whate'er the goal,
Success will be written across your scroll.

If you need some aid to complete your task,
Come to THE WORTHINGTON SAVINGS BANK and ask,
What it is that we can do,
To assure a victory for you.
