cardinal

Our theme is You—the students of Worthington High—and our research sifts the substance of Cardinal-Land. Out of your spirit alone, your labor and your laughter, have come these precious particles of fact that build our book. Triumphs and tears recorded here alike, your memories mark our pictures and our print—the Footnotes of 1961.

DEDICATION

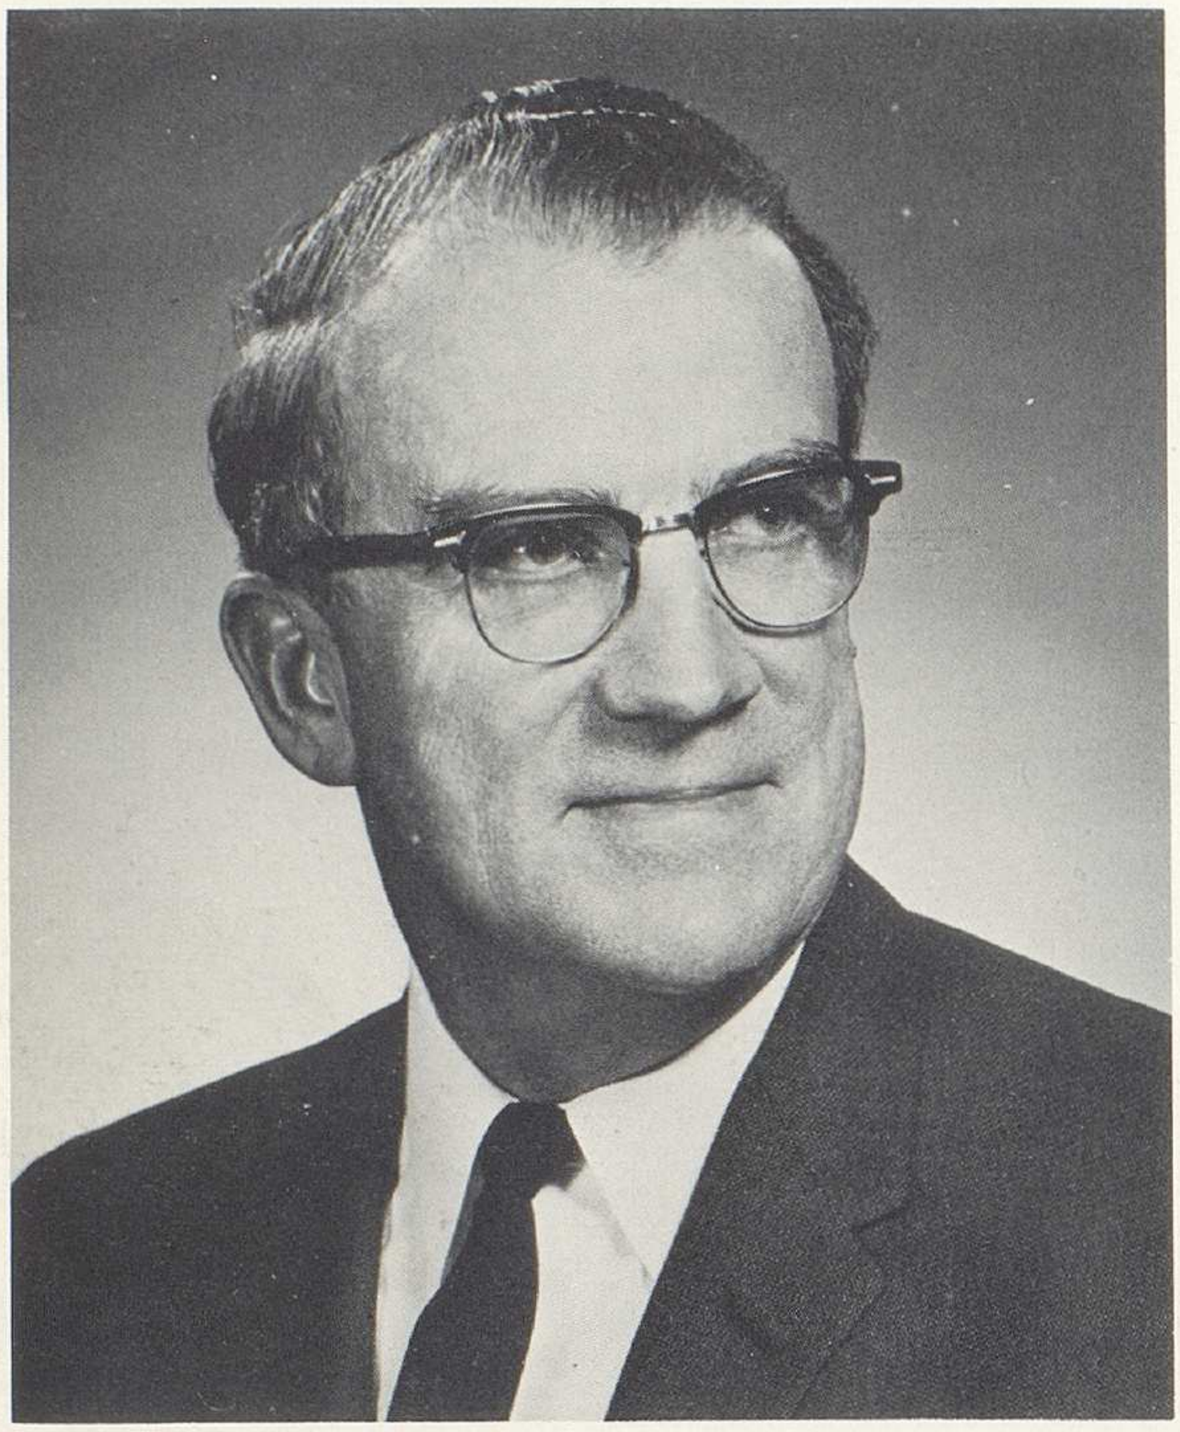

MISS MARJORIE WILLOCK

Twelve years ago the class of 1961 took its first step toward formal education under the guidance of Miss Marjorie Willock. We can recall so vividly sitting in the classroom in 1949, learning the fundamentals of education from one who exemplified patience, understanding, and compassion. It was through her outstanding qualities that we began our school life with enthusiasm and interest. To all of us she stands for courage, perseverance, and spiritual strength. In appreciation of her many services and the contribution she has made to us individually and to our school, we dedicate the 1961 CARDINAL to Miss Marjorie Willock.

Footnotes describe or explain further the significance of any given item such as a name or a date or a statement. The names and the dates that have fostered our footnotes recall to mind the different emotions that we have shared as a class. Sorrow and joy, success and failure alike, have touched us all during our years at Worthington High School. Whether, as we read our soliloquy, we laugh or we cry, they are the footnotes we have lived and shared, and the memory of them is never to be forgotten.

During the Freshman year, Dennis Jones, President, headed our class down the path of future success. Julie Bird represented both the Homecoming and CARDINAL Queen Courts. Halloween attendant was Jayne Beaver, and climaxing our first taste of high school life was the Freshman Frolic held at Holliday Hill.

Providing leadership during the Sophomore year was Duncan MacVicar, President. Sally Tangeman and Pam Harman were Homecoming and Halloween attendants respectively. For the second time, Julie Bird was chosen as a member of the CARDINAL Queen Court. During the summer, many members of the class enjoyed the first large project by working as ushers at the Ohio State Fair.

We entered the Junior year led by Bob McBride, President. We had many successes including our class play, "Dear Phoebe," and the enchanting Junior-Senior Prom, South Sea Adventure." Pat Zuidema was Homecoming attendant, and Sherri Carter represented the class on the Halloween Court. Among the finalists on the CARDINAL Queen Court were Susan Payne, Sherri Carter, and Julie Bird. Julie was crowned the 1960 CARDINAL Queen.

To end our class footnotes, we entered into the Senior year with a desire to make the last the best. President, Bob McBride, directed class participation in many projects including the Chicken Bar-B-Que, the Spaghetti Dinner, the Fish Fry, and chips and corn sales. Student Government leader was Rick Fisher, chosen by the Student Body to conduct school policies. Janet Warren ruled over Homecoming Festivities as Queen, with Sue Tomlinson as attendant. Queen of the Halloween Festival was Pam Gerald, and her Senior attendant was Sherri Carter. Our class play, "The Man Who Came to Dinner," proved to be a huge success. As Easter vacation drew near, the goal for which we had anticipated for four years became a reality. The Class of 1961, the last class to take a Senior Class Trip, spent one week touring Washington D.C. and New York City.

May the fellowship we have shared, and the experience we have gained together as students of Worthington High School, guide us in the future to be better citizens and individuals.

Gunter Wendt

Worthington High School participated in the Foreign Exchange Student Program for the first time this year. Early in the fall, students and teachers alike eagerly awaited the arrival of Gunter Wendt, a high school senior from West Berlin, Germany, who was to spend his twelfth year of learning at Worthington. Students were delighted with Gunter's friendly and courteous manner. Enthusiastically he took an active participation in the swimming team, Student Council and Senior Class activities, meeting and remembering many people and names. Gunter's interests are mainly in international affairs and political policies. He was especially interested in the Presidential campaign and showed great knowledge and understanding of our election process.

In addition to many other foreign students, Gunter was sponsored by the American Field Service, an organization dedicated to promoting international understanding, supported by private businessmen and government funds.

It is the hope of the students of Worthington that Gunter will achieve his success and continue his interest in international understanding.

WHS has three groups of cheerleaders—Varsity, Reserve, and Freshman—in order to raise the school spirit and interest for their respective teams. The Varsity squad consists of Julie Bird, head cheerleader, Cindy Caudill, Jenny Clark, Linda Shufflebarger, and Ann Tannehill. The alternates are Beth Egelhoff and Sue Tomlinson. The Varsity squad is in charge of all the pep rallies, including the traditional Homecoming bonfire, and they plan the basketball and football Parents' Nights. The squad promotes better relations between the CBL schools by entertaining the visiting cheerleaders for dinner before the game. The Varsity and Reserve Cheerleaders are elected in the spring by the senior members of Cheerleading Club and members of the faculty. The Reserve squad consists of Cathy Clancy, head cheerleader, Bonnie Collins, Karen Frey, Carla Haupt, and Judy Perry. The alternates are Missy Long and Lynn Weed. The Freshman Cheerleaders, who are elected in the fall by the Varsity squad, are Susan Allison, Sherri Clancy, head cheerleader, Pat McBride, Rosalynn Pearson, and Carol Rienschield. varsity football

The Worthington High School football team concluded its first winning season under Coach Sabock. The team compiled an overall 6-4 record finishing in a tie for third place in the Central Buckeye League. In the three years under Sabock, the team has steadily improved with each year's experience in the tough C.B.L. moving up from a 2-7 slate in '58 and last year's 4-4-1 finish to this year's 6-4 standing.

Football has always been one of the major sports at Worthington, and last fall "football fever" was running high after the Cardinals completely dominated play in their three pre-season scrimmage games. The Cards were defeated the first game by a hard-running team from Watterson, but bounced back to roar through their next three opponents, including the Co-Champions of the Mid-Eight League, Hilliard and London. After battling through the roughest physical pounding of the year, Worthington emerged victorious over perennial power Mt. Vernon. An inspired Delaware team pulled off their biggest upset by upending the Cardinal eleven, 20-16. The stage was now set for the long-awaited game with arch-rival Arlington. Worthington dominated play and held the lead for three quarters, but Arlington mounted an offensive late in the final quarter to score the winning touchdown with a minute and forty-three seconds left in the game. The Cardinals were beaten, but played their finest game of the season. The team next edged Bexley 20-18 with Nick Norman's ninety-seven yard touchdown gallop in the closing minutes of play. Undefeated Urbana then beat the Cards 28-0. Worthington closed the season on a two game winning streak with wins over Granview and Whitehall.

Next fall should be one of Worthington's best with a battle-seasoned corps of juniors back to lead the way. Chic Dambach will succeed Roger Campbell and Dennis Jones as the captain for next year's squad. Best of luck, men . . .

cross-country

Captain Roy McCauley

Worthington's cross-country team under the coaching of Les Eisenhart, turned in the best season in the schools history. The 7-1 record was supplemented by the district championship and a fine fourth place finish in the state. The team set new records in both these meets. The Worthington relays was one of the seasons highlights. This meet is based on a teams total time computed from five of six races.

The varsity team consisted of Captain Roy McCauley, Russ Cellar, Karl Rieppel, Dave Watkins, Doug Goins, Doug Sleight, and Bill Morrow. Some promising underclassmen are Ira Porterfield, Roy Jewett and Steve Dowling. With these boys and the remainder of the varsity squad, Coach Eisenhart is sure to produce another championship team.

varsity basketball

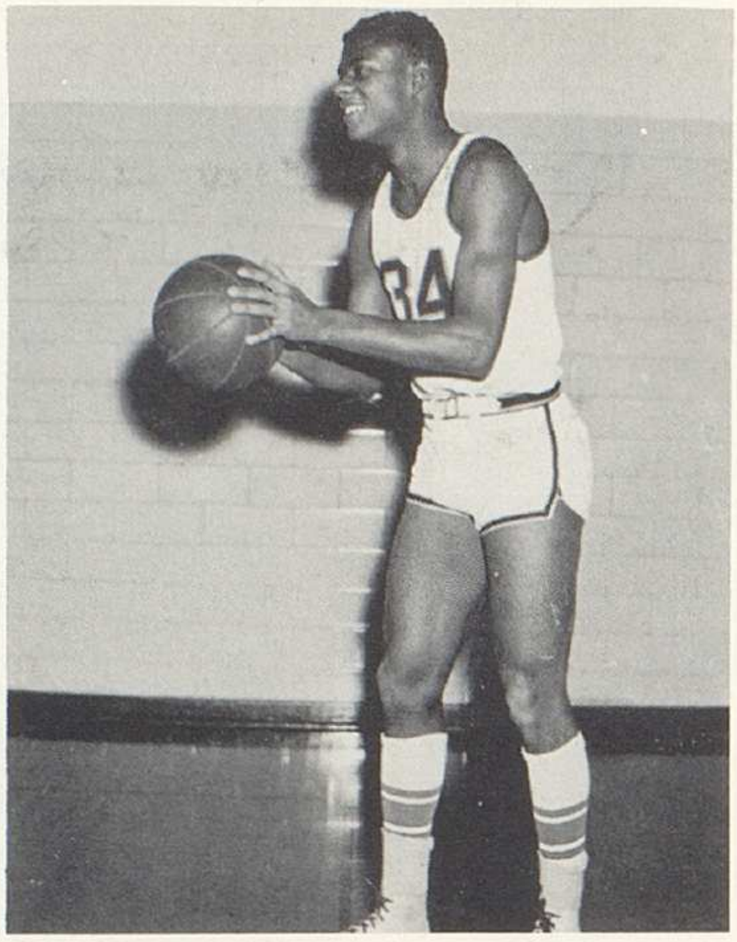

The 1960-61 varsity basketball team was composed of seven seniors and five juniors. The squad had an over-all season record of 9-9 and a league record of 7-7, placing the Cardinals fourth in the C.B.L. The team enjoyed an excellent season on the home court, losing only two games to the two top teams in the league. In compiling its 7-7 league record, the team was able to defeat all league foes at least once, with the exception of Upper Arlington and undefeated Urbana. The record also included double victories over Delaware and Mt. Vernon. The future looks bright for next year's team with some fine basketball players on the reserve squad moving up to take over varsity positions.

Coach Baum

Wrestling has established itself as one of the major sports at Worthington. The interest in wrestling has steadily increased each year, and now the sport has come into its own at W.H.S. We had another fine season this year winning eight and losing only one. The team finished first in the Whitehall invitational, first in the Pleasantview Quadrangular and second in our own invitational. The matmen were runners-up to a strong Whitehall squad in the district. We had two district champions in Doug Goins and Mike Baker. John Shoemaker and Duncan MacVicar were runners-up.

The senior members showed a fine exhibition of the art and finesse of wrestling, accomplished only through several years of hard work and the perfection of techniques. This year's squad was coached by Les Baum and captained by Doug Goins. We congratulate the wrestling team for a fine season and wish them the best of luck for next year.

Jim Wilson and Dave Kull were the two co captains of the Worthington's baseball team last spring. The fair weather men posted an over-all season record of 8-7, and a league record of 7-7. The team registered double victories over Delaware and Whitehall, but dropped two games to Urbana and league champion Mt. Vernon. The Cards split with Upper Arlington, Grandview and Bexley, finishing the season in a tie for fourth place in the Central Buckeye League. The team lost seven seniors through graduation, but plan to rebuild this year with three returning lettermen and an upcoming crop of juniors.

The dance was again, as in years past, a joint project of the Hi-Y and Y-Teens Clubs.

Following the prom, movies were shown at the Beechwold Theater. Tired but happy students proceeded to Riccardo's Restaurant, where they were served a delicious breakfast, climaxing the most spectacular and most remembered event of the year.

Karen Stout, Editor

The job of reporting all the news for Worthington High School has been well done by the 1960-61 Oracle Staff. Because the school does not have a newspaper, the Worthington News has featured the Oracle on one page of its paper for the past years. Editor Karen Stout has been aided by Advisor Mr. Phipps, and Assistant Editor, Gwen Mitchell. Reporting for the paper were the following students; Val Baugh, Phyllis Baumgardner, Diane Ensign, Jennifer Oech, Diane Plapp, Martha Spangenberg, Lynne Loveless, Sue Payne, Carol Rose, Linda Ross, Carol Oman, Nancy Fox, Diane Carlisle, Jean Ingles, Beth Egelhoff, Charles Schildknecht, Dave Herwitz, Angela Chakeres, Donna Grashel and Karen Nudd.

The 1960-1961 Cardinal was designed to give the students of Worthington High School a lasting and memorable record of their 1960-1961 school year. Our theme, "Footnotes of 61," was intended to compliment the main activities and to extend beyond just a picture or a piece of copy. We tried to do things just a little different this year, including the addition of the special Senior Section at the end of the book. We feel, although senior priority is a thing of the past, that a yearbook should be guided more towards a senior's interests, for it is their last.

In the editing of a yearbook, there are many people involved. Mr. Phipps, Advisor; Business Staff and Spike Bonnell, Business Manager; Will and Prophecy Staff and Diane Ensign, Editor; Index Staff and Beth Egelhoff, Editor; and the Editorial Staff and Pam Harman, Editor; all worked hard and diligently to meet deadlines and then more deadlines.

We hope that you, the students of Worthington High School, enjoy reading and rereading your 1960-1961 yearbook for many years to come.

This year the Cardinal Business Staff faced the difficult task of selling 600 yearbooks and plastic covers, and selling fourteen pages of advertisements to finance the publishing of the yearbook. The business staff, seven senior girls and seven senior boys, under the direction of George Bonnell, Business Manager, was responsible for raising $3200.00.

the worthington hig

The Worthington High School Mixed Choir participated in a number of activities during the 1960-61 school year. In the Fall Festival of Arts, the choir presented the "Lowland Sea", a tragic one-act operetta. The main characters were portrayed by Judy Ann Yost and Dave MacCoy.

The next appearance was the Christmas Concert on December 22. This year the program consisted mainly of serious songs. "Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming," "Glory To God," "For Unto Us a Child Is Born," "Away In a Manger," "Go Tell It on The Mountain," "Advent Motet," "No Man Is An Island," and "Rocking" were the songs included in the program.

Again this year, the choir joined the other choirs of Worthington in the annual Church Choir Festival. The high school choir sang "Advent Motet," "Agnus Dei," and "O Brother Man." The joint choirs sang such songs as "Psalm III," "Now Let Us All Praise God and Sing," "Gloria," and "Po' Good Jesus."

School mixed choir

Beginning in early February, the choir began a tedious preparation period for its operetta, The Desert Song. Janice Jennings and Jerry Collum were chosen for the lead parts. The Desert Song was another great success, and the climax was reached at the cast party after the Saturday night performance.

After the operetta, the choir began to prepare for the District Contest. The choir enters this contest yearly; however, the requirements this year were somewhat different. In addition to the required song, the choir was given a completely new song. Two minutes were allotted in which the choir was permitted to examine the piece. The result was a combined effort of the conductor and the choir members to interpret the work musically and with expression. This helped to develop a greater understanding and appreciation of the music.

The Spring Sing was the final performance of the year. The choir never failed to realize how valuable Miss Pierce had been as a director, teacher, and friend.

"dear phōebe"

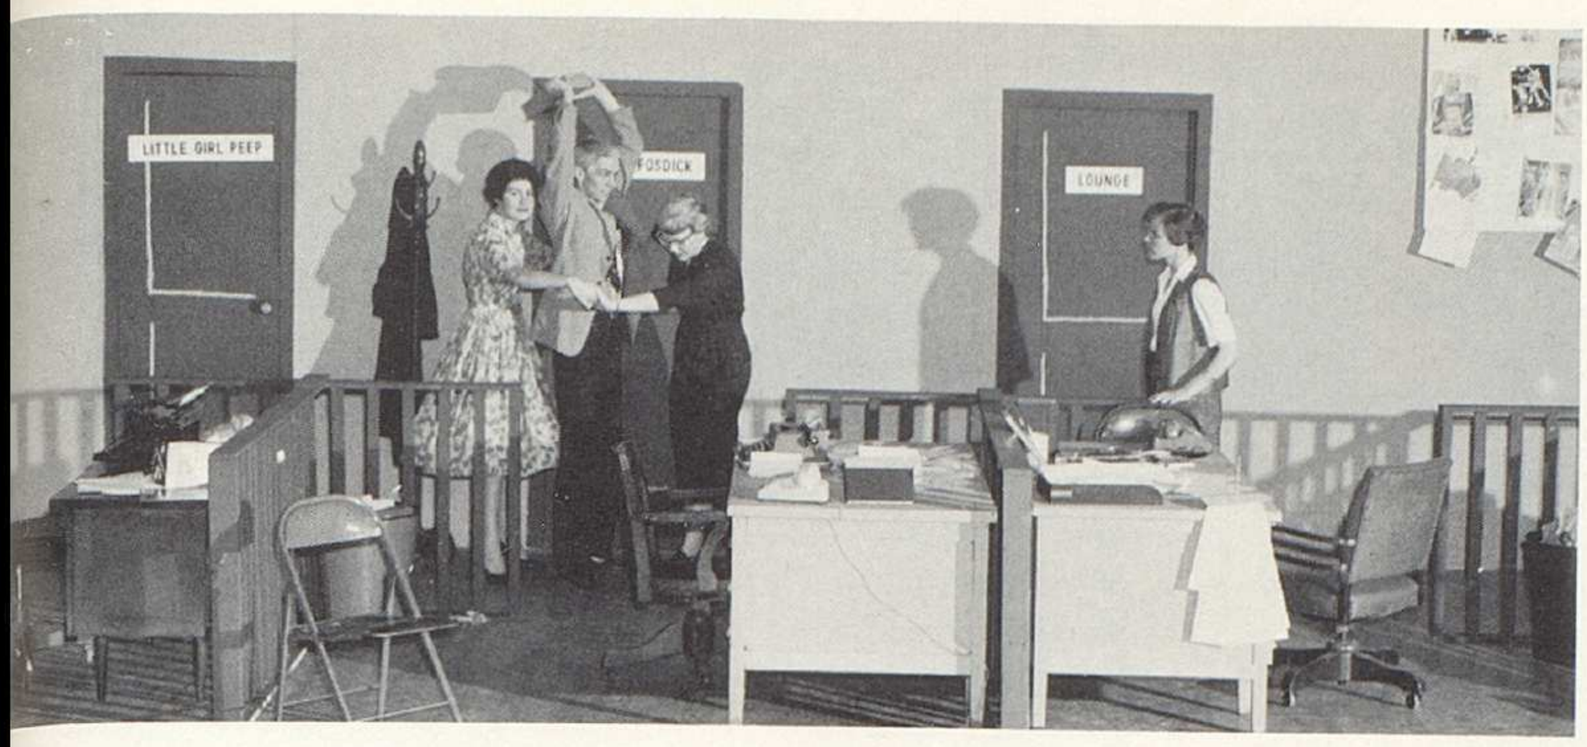

A newspaper office is the colorful setting for the hilarious comedy, "Dear Phoebe", presented by the Class of "61" in their junior year. Bill Hastings, who writes the lovelorn column, uncovers a sports-fix scandal with the help of Rochelle, a chorus girl. He accomplishes it by dressing as Aunt Phoebe. Things really begin to pop then! Rochelle is killed right under the noses of Bill and Mickey, the female sports-writer. Solving the murder is made more difficult by the arrival of Big Joe Moroni, a big time gangster, of Victoria Parrish, the eccentric owner of the Star and many other strange characters. Of course, the audience is rocked with laughter before virture and true love triumph in the end.

"the desert song"

On Friday and Saturday nights, February 24th and 25th, the Worthington High School mixed Choir and Orchestra presented the colorful operetta, "The Desert Song." The lead parts were assigned immediately before Christmas vacation and rehearsals began directly after vacation.

With a vivid Moroccan setting, this famous operetta, by Sigmund Romberg, tells the story of the notorious Red Shadow who has devoted his life to freeing the Arabs from the oppression of the French soldiers. To keep his identity unknown, he disguises himself as Pierre, the timid son of General Birabeau, the French governor of Morocco. Complications arise when the Red Shadow falls in love with Margot Bonvalet, a young American girl in search of adventure and romance. Bennie, a newspaper correspondent, and Susan, his secretary, add a colorful and comical touch to the operetta.

Jerry Collum portrayed the Red Shadow (Pierre), Janis Jennings portrayed Margot Bonvalet, Dave Smith played Bennie and Marilyn Landon, Susan.

The chorus was under the direction of Miss Ruth Pierce and Dwight Horch, Student Director. Mr. David Miller conducted the orchestra.

Twelve guns are raised in an arch of triumph as the cast takes a well-deserved curtain call after a wonderful performance.

Hassi, Mindar, Azuri, Lieutenant Fontaine, Susan, Bennie, Margot, The Red Shadow (Pierre), Sid El Kar, General Birabeau, Clementina, Ali Ben Ali . . . a proud and happy group of principals take their bows.

With the help of the entire chorus, Lieutenant Fontaine tells Pierre that he is certainly no Romeo.

Mr. Miller conducts the high school orchestra which did a fine job in making the operetta such a success.

Old-fashioned Pierre proclaims his love to Margot.

During a scene with the aggressive Spanish dancer, Clementina, Bennie is quite surprised to discover the presence of Ali Ben Ali, her master.

The members of the Red Shadow's Riff Band kneel towards Mecca to offer a prayer for their leader.

Neri and Hadji tell the Riff leaders Hassi and Sid El Kar of their good luck gained through the help of the Red Shadow.

Ali Ben Ali, The Red Shadow, and Sid El Kar exchange ideas on Eastern and Western love.

General Birabeau casts a suspicious glance toward the winsome native, Azuri, as she proclaims her love to Lieutenant Fontaine.

Edith tries to console Susan as she worries about Bennie's absence.

A hard-working stage crew take time out to be recognized for the time and effort they contributed to the success of the operetta. David Herwitz, Kathy Bruno, Gary Greenleaf, Abner Pinney, Howdy Willson, Fred Pallini, Tom Holman.

scouting

During our elementary school days, many girls and boys participated in Brownies, Girl Scouts, Campfire Girls, Cub Scouts, and Boy Scouts. Through these organizations we learned how to help other people, to be on our own at camp, and to become acquainted with skills by earning badges. Many long and lasting friendships grew from our Scouting days, and we will never forget the fun which these years brought to us.

There is something very sad and wonderful about a yearbook. Especially the yearbook that records your senior year. It is more than just a reminder of one year's activities — it is a record that extends back to your first day at Worthington, and recalls for you the faces that were especially friendly and the people you want to remember most. For some, the 1960-1961 Cardinal will have twelve years' significance, for some only one, but for each graduating senior it holds special meaning. The Cardinal Yearbook Staff hope that each one of you enjoys. reminiscing over the pages of this annual as much as we have enjoyed constructing them.
