A world of images,
rising
falling,
laughing,
loving,
living
Images that remain in the mind,
long after the realities are gone.
Increasing perception,
perceiving beauty.

For in reality,
life is but one image after another.

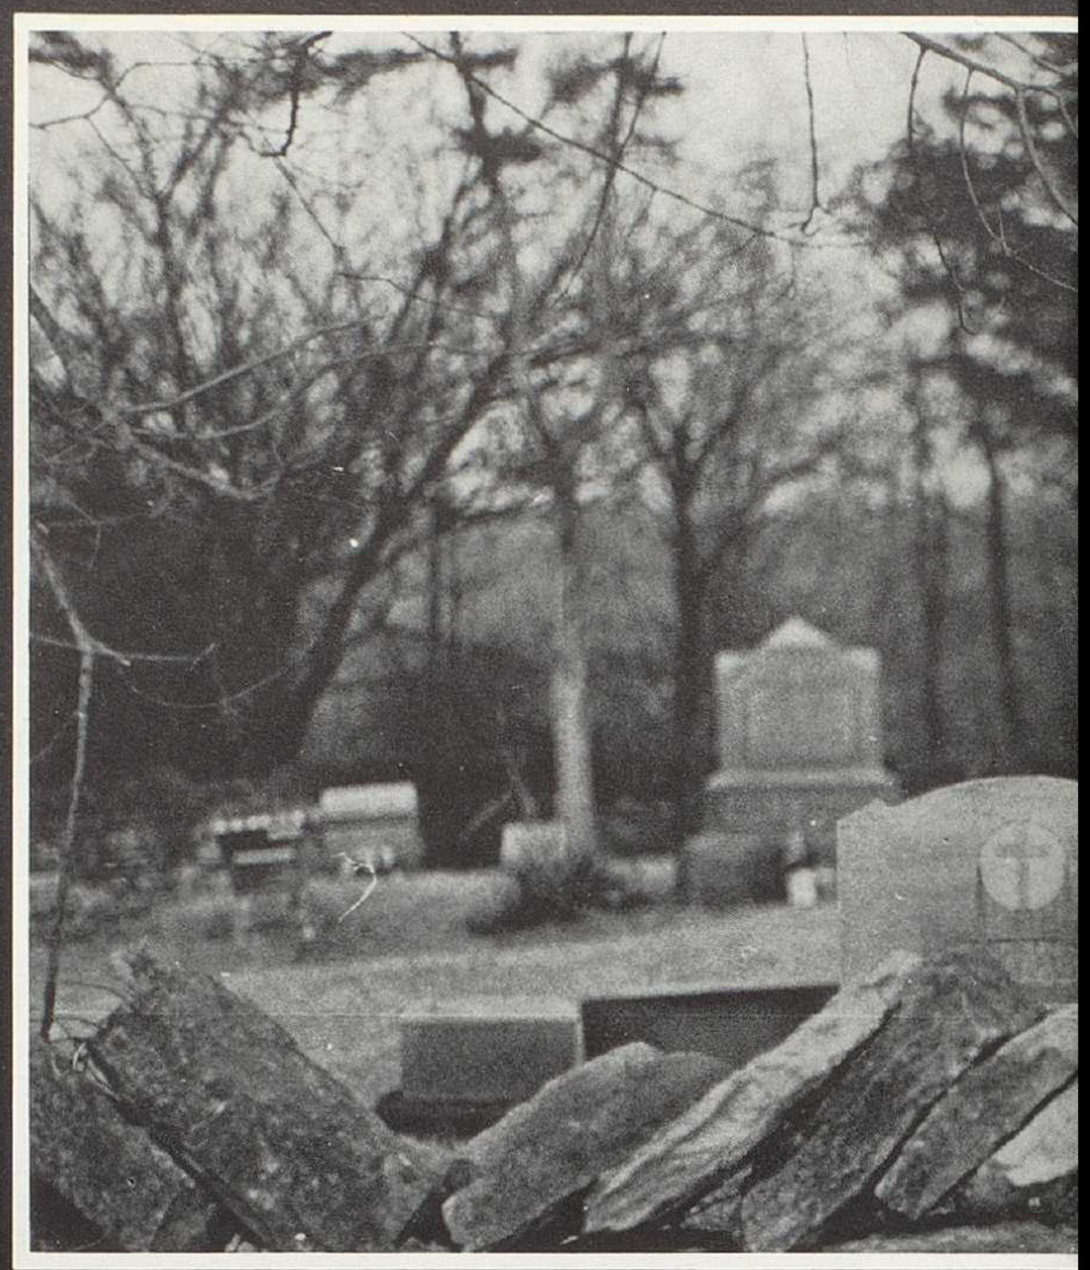
An autumn evening,
drifts slowly down the silence
of shoe-scuffed halls,
into peaceful oblivion.
Its lonely solitude,
a solemn memorial to a day's ecstasies.



A mountain,
once strong in rugged splendor,
now lies crumbling
beneath the feet of time.
Its forested slopes,
Its snow capped peak,
subdued in the violence of winter gales.
For no mountain is strong,
when lying in the shadow of its own conceit.

Living, is tumbling through a series
of misshapen smiles,
and unrestrained sincerities.
Its days of bright sunshine,
and hours of contented laughter.
But most of all, living is knowing that life is worth its hardships.

A people,
tormented by images of confusion,
cry in the anguish of uncertainty.
Not knowing the beauty,
not recognizing the happiness,
that lies beneath.
And the key is easily found—
It is there for those who look.

Once,
a field of uncut wheat
glistened in the early morning suns.
And swayed in the mid-day winds.
And bent in evening rains.
And now,
as I walk the narrow fields of its beginnings,
my tears grace barren grounds
For as with so many others, truths, realizations
came after the cutting.

'72 Homecoming–
Freaks and Jocks

72 Homecoming–
When people finally started to realize differences are petty.
When Freak and Jock, finally started a slow merging.
When colors finally faded into one.
When floats and dying bonfires provided a bond for friendship.
When concern outran victory,
and honesty overcame popularity.

Past is Relived At Xmas Formal

A child's Christmas . . .
where images tall are reminders of ages before,
when we were but children ourselves.
And memories are more than refreshed
in the shadow of gigantic snowmen
in the reflection of flickering firelight
in the gaiety of year-long candycanes, and
the increased merging of presence into past,
only serves to promote the atmosphere of reminiscence.
A child's Christmas.

Operetta Proves Love Denies War

Ocean breezes lift soft palm fronds and carry images of war to silent rest.

A young army nurse and a lonely French plantation owner meet within these peaceful confines, and feel love—
two contrasting worlds suddenly identical

Months of planning, working, rehearsing.
Days of frustation, when all wished it were over.
Weeks of pent-up excitement and tension building to a climax—Opening Night.
A full house and lively audience, catching the cast's excitement.
A show that swept by more swiftly than ever before,
then applause, thunderous applause—
South Pacific.

June 6th, 1972

8 O'Clock P.M.

A night long awaited,
Graduation was embraced with mixed emotions:
Joy
For New Independence,
Sorrow
For the End of a Life,
Love
For whom we're leaving,
Hatred
For having to leave them.

The Ceremony, in two hours, brought an end to five-hundred four Eternities, leaving a bitter-sweet aftertaste:
In gaining,
One
Must also lose;
Truly, "Each other we may never see again."

Folk Dances and Soul Food Help Promote Harmony

Worthington International Club—
A blend of the world and its people,
An international buffet, with foods
from every country.
An assembly that released a portion of Worthington inhibition, through a school wide folk dance.
An Italian dinner at O.S.U.
A tradition breaking folk dance canteen,
fringed with folk-rock music.
Changes, additions,—a broadening of interests.

Race Relations—

Chess and Debate Appeal to the Mind

Chess
was capturing the spirit
of an ancient game of western man.
Matching of minds;
Fighting with pawns the battle of kings.

Debate was learning to think, learning to speak;
Finding answers in the mind to be felt in the heart.
Investigating the jury system, retaining what is good
and proposing alternatives for what is not.
This year debate was a membership in the National Forensic League with all of its benefits;
Debate was a tournament,
with liberties taken and dismissal costing maybe some victories but probably pride.

Student Council, Newcomers Club Work For School

Student Council this year was revision and reorganization, fewer members and greater commitment.
Collecting canned goods for the needy,
working for Muscular Dystrophy, Sponsoring Homecoming and the Winter Carnival;
seeking change.
First period release, a smoking area—
controversy, confrontation, commitment.
And a question:
Are students ready for their dreams?
A new student at Worthington—alone, uncertain, searching.
Newcomer's Club was formed,
selling balloons for the Heart Fund, donating gifts to the underpriveleged—
providing involvement in the school and community.
Finding yourself and seeking a place.

itional tapping of those few chosen as new NHS members.

GSO, NHS Serve School, Community

National Honor Society—
Expectations, perhaps hopes,
An assembly of silent tappings.
Induction into a society,
Serving to recognize the talented,
but perhaps little else.

GSO—
Reborn of Y-Teens
A club for girls to organize And initiate programs for the community.
Providing service for Worthington and surrounding areas.

Art Club Swarms With Creativity

Art Club—
Discovering one's talent,
Finding a means of self-expression,
Decorating Christmas trees for the school,
making wire earrings and paper ornaments,
painting dried flowers.
Selling work to purchase a radio and a camera;
spending an afternoon at the Cincinnati Art Museum.
Looking at the world, shading it with your own personality—Creating.

Thespians—
Working, preparing, interpreting, producing,
The Drunkard.
Pooling resources and purchasing stage equipment for the Kilbourne Auditorium, costumes for Theater Arts classes.
Skits for the Christmas concert,
a "wax museum" for the Winter Carnival,
one-act plays in the spring.
Thespians—playing its role in Worthington.

Musical Groups Provide Pleasure

Stage Band—
Providing contemporary dance music at all band concerts, and playing for the first time at activities not school associated—dances and concerts in various regions of the state.

Orchestra—
The home of many talented musicians and a major attraction at any concert.
Touring the elementary schools with classical music,
orchestra was a broadening of interests.

Half-Time Heroes Display Stamina

Marching Band,
providing a relaxing break
from the game's excitement—and ear-splitting spirit
at pep assemblys.

Marching in the Memorial Day
and Fourth of July parades, playing to promote the bond issue.
The culmination of long hours of practice—
well-performed music, and intricate marches.

Active Students Inspire Crowds

Inspiring school spirit—
a hard thing to stir
in apathetic Worthington.
Smiling and cheering, lighting a spark the crowd fans.
Marching at half-time
with the band, baton twirling and banjo strumming.
Majorettes, Cadettes and Cheerleaders ignite spirit colorfully.

Choir Considers Singing an Art

Choir—
Providing a wide range of music throughout the year.
Performing popular to classical with a consistently professional attitude.
Composing and conducting new alma-maters,
and sponsoring South Pacific—providing cast and crew from its numbers.
Choir—with a voice of singing.

Vocal Ensembles Perform for Area

The cream of the choir—
the ensembles
entertained at places of distinction—Scots Inn, Lion's Club.
Performing popular music,
Mixed ensembles' repertoire included
"Aquarius" and "Bridge Over Troubled Water" Recent ensemble innovations have included drums and a bass guitar.
Dressed in formal and tux,
the ensembles were a welcome addition to any concert.

Publications Aim For Higher Goals

Dedication was mandatory for the Cardinal staff—
a goal to complete
with little reward.
For surely,
neither glory nor recognition
walks hand in hand with responsibility.

The Chronicle—
Financially unstable and limited to twelve issues,
the WHS newspaper
labored under a handicap.
Reporting and photographing with discrimination characterised high journalistic standards even while the sale of notepads, posters, and buttons, provided the only lifeboat
in a sea of red ink.
Shackled, yet always laboring for an accurate rendition of student life.

Cooperation Was the Accomplishment

Confrontation, cooperation and change ear-marked another year of success for a progressive administration.
New appointments, two new assistant principals:
Sterling T. Apthorp at the high school,
Arthur Lomax at Kilbourne.
Cooperation between teachers and students
resulting in changes:
Curriculum revision,
First period release,
a smoking area for the main campus.
Increased facilities,
plans for a new school.
Looking forward, into the future.
Transforming the dreams of tomorrow
into the realities of today.

Guidance Offers Realistic Advice

Guidance, Health Office, Library:
Three mammoth jobs
in a mammoth school.
Patience, a willingness to help,
and true concern for students are necessities in these areas.
Helping young researchers find the realities of tomorrow, in the theories of yesterday.
Diagnosing cutters fever, and halting bloody noses.
Counseling, scheduling, advising.
All these are characteristics of three demanding occupations.

Science Assists Individual Study

Science was the encouragement of indivdual study, and the purchase of a new microscope for learning in greater depth.
It was three computer terminals always swarmed with students in the exploration of theory, or teachers in lesson preparation.
It was ecology awareness—the waste watchers program.
It was the Physics 500, with scientifically formulated cars.
Science was an expression of self, and realizing that in any form it is an art.

Computer Active In Math Classes

Math was—a new Geometry curriculum—this year's pilot program—extensive computer use—programming for the attendance office with a new and more powerful system.
There was a diverse course choice, from Statistics to Linear Algebra.
Taking all into account, math was just another unanswerable equation.

Foreign Language Stresses Culture

Broadened understanding was the goal of the Foreign Language Department.
Seeing not only to learn different tongues
but to understand the people who speak them.
Through dinners, folk dances and movies studying the art, literature, and music of cultures different from our own.
A glimpse of life in Soviet Russia—communicating.

English Promotes Wide Selection

This year was re-evaluation and change.
For the English department, reorganization was the order of the day

Thirty new semester courses, ranging from Theater Arts to Journalism;
searching for the interests of students,
hoping to fulfill their needs.

More variety, more relevance,
greater interest, greater participation.

This year was proof that change could bring progress;
that progress could bring improvement;
that new ideas can bring a positive step forward.

Social Studies

Finding Awareness

Social Studies—
seeking to make education more relevant to students and teachers.
Course revisions in all levels probing for students' interests, searching for channels to expand them.
Emphasizing dialogue, challenging old concepts and confronting new ideas.
For truly
Teaching is the art of making aware.

Music, Art Seek Self Expression

This year was Recognition that music is more than interrelated sounds;
more than a casual hobby for the enthusiast.
Performing in varied forms:
band, orchestra, choral groups;
concerts for Thanksgiving, Christmas and Spring—
a stage production: South Pacific.
Testing mucicianship in contest:
in vocal or instrumental solos,
or an original composition.
Seeking always expression of self.
Art—
offering a variety of courses
for both the casual and the serious artist.
Pottery, jewelry, weaving, macrame;
painting and three-dimensional projects.
Experimenting in different forms,
and discovering proficiencies.

Safety Stressed in Driver's Ed

Driver's Ed—
The slow cautious movement
of two tons of steel.
Careful direction by time
hardened instructors.
First road time—the wheel slick with sweat.
Final exam: an hour of tortured Vigilance, with the hopeful result of independence.

Health—
A coach's game, played to the instruction of sophomores.
First aide, disease study, sex education.
Lively discussion of subject material.

Phys. Ed—
Fitness an issue always stressed—healthy body; healthy mind.
Diverse activities—Football to ping pong.
Noisy canoe-battles on the river Olentangy.

Service Staff Willing to Help

Custodians—
working lonely hours in forgotten halls,
sweeping the dust of a day's dreams.
Answering the call of three short rings:
trouble-shooting in hallways of the school.
Working to prepare the silent walls for another day.

Whether wearing a pilgrim's hat for Thanksgiving or bedecked in green for St. Patrick's the cooks were always ready with a happy smile—
or an extra helping on a big lunch.

Student Center– Full of Activity

A day at the student center:
excuses for a day of school missed,
a flock of tardy students receiving passes to study hall;
attendance sheets after homeroom,
cut slips compiled.
A deposit for Mrs. Severns,
a glance at the Master Schedule
a pre-excused slip for a doctor's appointment—
Another day.
Overseeing the zoo: Such is the responsibility of the study hall monitor.
First day frenzies;
the gradual transition to quiet
as routine becomes entrenched.
The return of spring and pent-up feelings—
students restless for each other.

Lab Assistants Dissect Reality

Growing computer facilities, formation of computer club.
Seeking to increase understanding of machines to revolutionize tomorrow.
Aides—writing and running programs,
giving assistance to the novice and experienced alike.
Office workers—writing passes, filing materials, answering the phone;
helping the secretaries of the school.
Lab assistants—in biology, chemistry and physics cleaning cages, preparing solutions, fixing equipment.
Helping the science department run smoothly.
Sifting through a stack of books—
Such is the life of a library aide.
Audio-visual aides—transporting movie projectors,
tape recorders and record players; making videotapes.
Servicing the school with technology's children.

'72 Senior Party— The Final Farewell To Four Full Years Of Vivid Memories

Senior Party—
A night-long frolic spiced with the excitement of graduation.
Don Scott Field
provided a more casual site
than previous years.
All enjoyed
the music of Boxcar, till early morning rose with a warm breakfast and a sobering cup of coffee.

Major Decisions Confront Seniors

Looking back memories stir
in minds often clouded
by the realities of life.
Four Years of laughter frustration
peace.
Four years of life
in preparation for life?
The building of Rome,
The falling of Rome,
in four years.
Four years of what you made them,
and what they made you.
Four years of ecstasy? Four years of hell?
No, just four years.
Four years of choice.

Striving Juniors Realize Ambitions

Realizing the limits
of your knowledge,
you strive for excellence.
Knowing that life is exceedingly complex,
you work for understanding.
You search for the key to the door of truth.
May you realize that the door is unlocked
and you need but knock.

LEFT: Junior Class Officers. Karen Aumuller—President, Nancy Riemenschneider—Secretary, Marc Millon—Vice-President, Jeff Suddendorf—Treasurer.

'74 Finds World A Complex Place

Lacking in spirit,
looking for meaning.
Searching, often lost in frightened confusion—the youngest in an impersonal school.
Disassociated and unassociating,
initiating a private, personal world.
Experimenting—clutching each extreme and breathing deep, the perfume of both.
Following not,
the traditional course,
but perhaps discovering a truer end.

Freshmen Unite In Participation

You are growing, reaching.
Learning to touch, to caress, to love.
You are running to a sea
surfaced only by trivialities
A sea whose treasures lie far beneath crested waves.
Long years of crowded halls await you.
Long years of ringing bells and shuffling feet.
Acceptance and rejection will mark these years,
and the momentary twinge of a desire for meaning may shape them.
But the choice is ever yours—whether to float on surface safety, or dive, dive for the heart that lies beneath.

Gridiron Greats Grab OCC Crown

Tension builds
as last minute instructions
rise amid whispers of confidence.
Heads bow
as the pre-game prayer
asks blessing for a dedicated team.
Excitement bursts
in the jubilation of victory,
and fades in defeat's solemn tears.
May purpose be found in such an immovable goal.

Thinclads Repeat As OCC Champs

As all other spring sports, track finished the season
as OCC champions.
Perseverance proved this year's success,
as track practice
was often long, and always wearying.
A sport where individual
effort is paramount,
Track thrives in Worthington.

Jockettes Give Needed Support

Cheerleading—
making posters and signs
to encourage student support for athletic events sponsoring bake sales
and the
All Sports Dance.

Track Club—
Always familiar faces at any meet.
Track Club
picked from its ranks
a track Queen for the '71-'72 season.

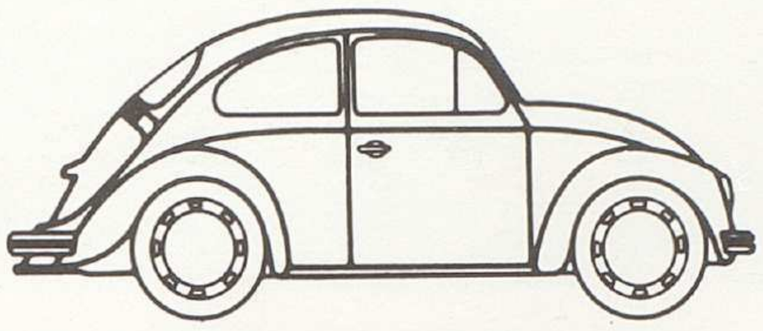
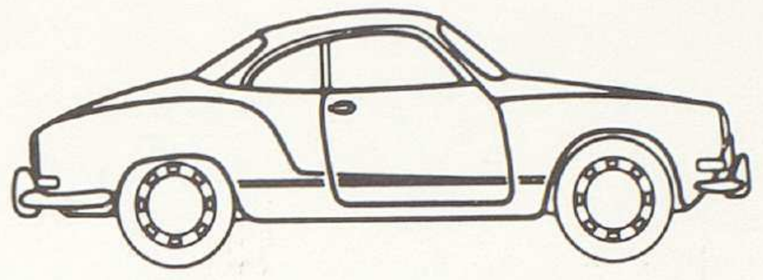
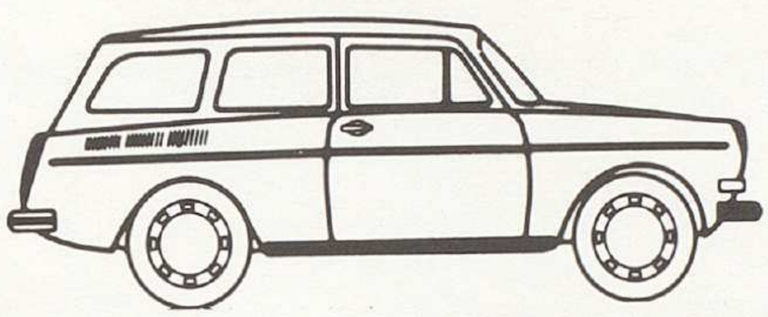
WE INVITE YOUR FAMILY TO COME AND MEET OUR FAMILY.



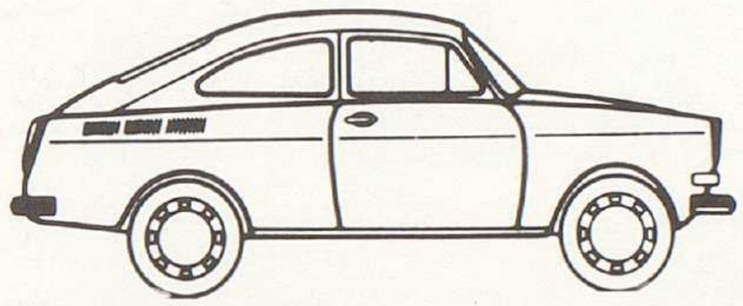
Famous Volkswagen sedan that looks much the same year after year, but has had 2200 changes in 21 years.



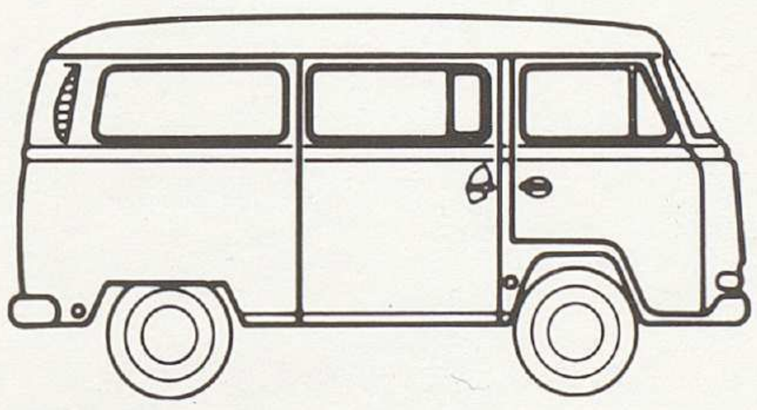
Karmann Ghia coupe is shaped, sculptured, sprayed and rubbed by hand. Yet priced below many mass-produced sports cars.



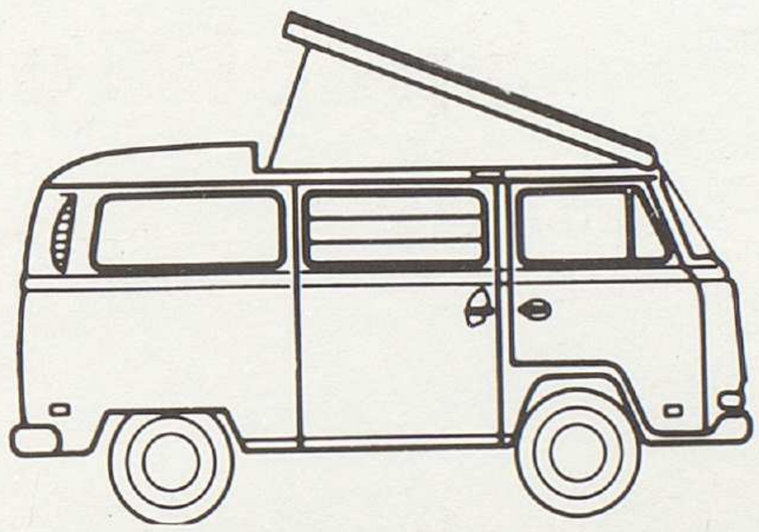
Squareback sedan has more luggage room than the largest conventional sedan, yet is only 12 inches longer than the bug.



Fastback sedan is a plush, sleek car with wall-to-wall carpeting, electronic fuel injection, other luxury features.



Volkswagen station wagons can carry one small elephant. Or up to 9 adults and 9 pieces of luggage.



The Campmobile is a vacation cottage you can take with you. Complete with living-bedroom, kitchen and an air-cooled engine in the rear.

Truly it is impossible within the limitations of this page to adequately express gratitude to those who helped in the production of this book. Nevertheless I offer this token of thanks, if only to shed light on the unrewarded dedication of yearbook workers.

To Mike Snouffer goes the credit for the most successful management of business in years;
Nancy Dill and Jill Edwards worked diligently on layouts in spite of jobs and lack of pictures;
Phil Ward authored most of the copy featured in this book;
Lisa Heiser and Kathy Robison, "the most disorganized seniors," remained always the most dependable;
Jack Campbell spent long hours collecting scores and pictures for the sports section;
Carol Clyde slaved endlessly over the index;
Paula Klosterman collected information and pictures of the WHS faculty;
Suzy Harding was an able and always willing right arm to business manager Mike Snouffer;
Carol Partridge and Winetta Billings handled the senior and underclass sections, respectively.

Steve Tracey (Stevo), in spite of tremendous burdens and personal tragedy, remained ever our YRBK photographer;
Chris Pollock, phtographer, worked selflessly and often at short notice;
Also providing Cardinal 72 with photographs were Mr. Heaps, Mark Buckelew, David Jamison, The Worthington News and The Spectator.

The following juniors assisted in many of the more menial tasks of the yearbook. Most shall use their experience to go on and form next year's Cardinal 73.

Some gave their time and energy to the yearbook although under no obligation whatsover. I give my thanks to Bob Weinhold, Becky Wilson, Vince Franz, Eric Stroo, Mariella Buckelew, and Nancy Harris, who aided in varying capacities in meeting deadlines.

This list would not be complete without mention of two others. Though she was not officially listed as a staff member; she gave more time and effort than many staffers combined. To Alison Jean Circle (Gator), I offer unlimited appreciation. Also to be mentioned here is Mr. Thomas Savon, our coach, who sacrificed long and endless hours away from home throughout the year, providing leadership and assistance to all of us, the team.

It is to these people that I offer these closing remarks of thanks. It is they who created Cardinal 72.

IN MEMORY

JEFF WATKINS

a leader, a student,

a dreamer, and

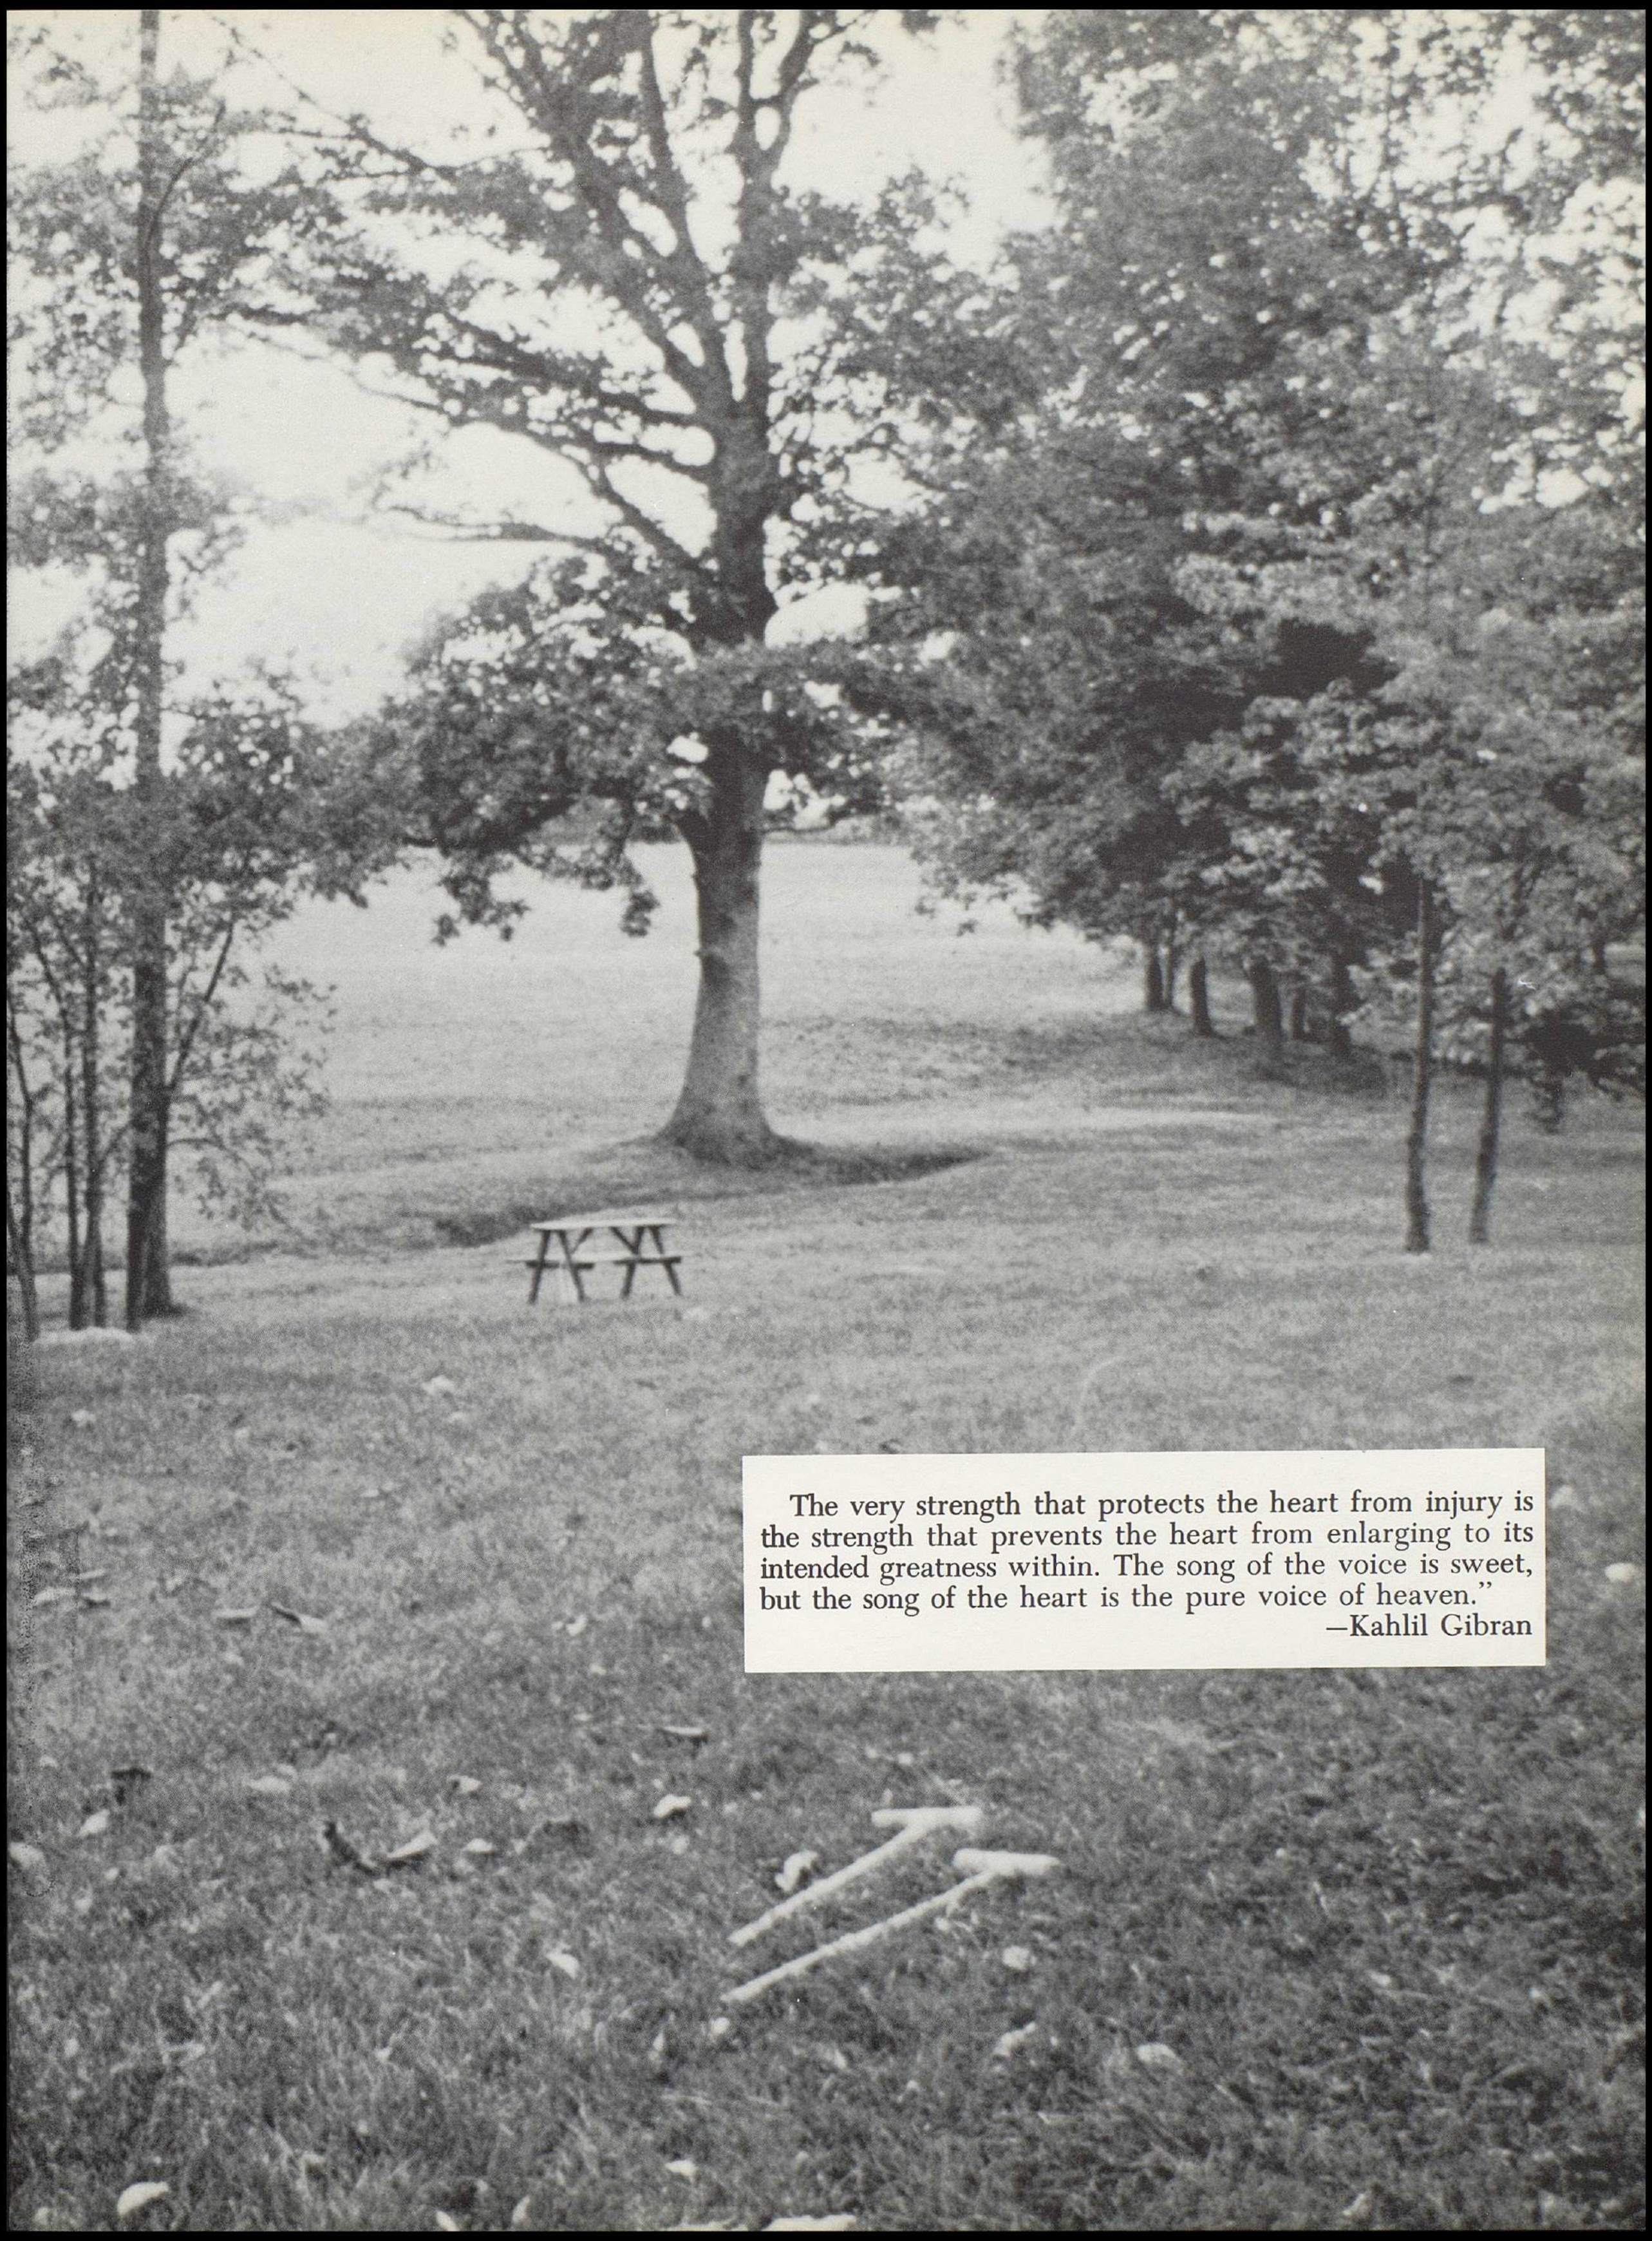
a friend

'Twixt optimist and pessimist
The difference is droll;
The optimist sees the doughnut,
The pessimist, the hole.

—McLandburgh Wilson

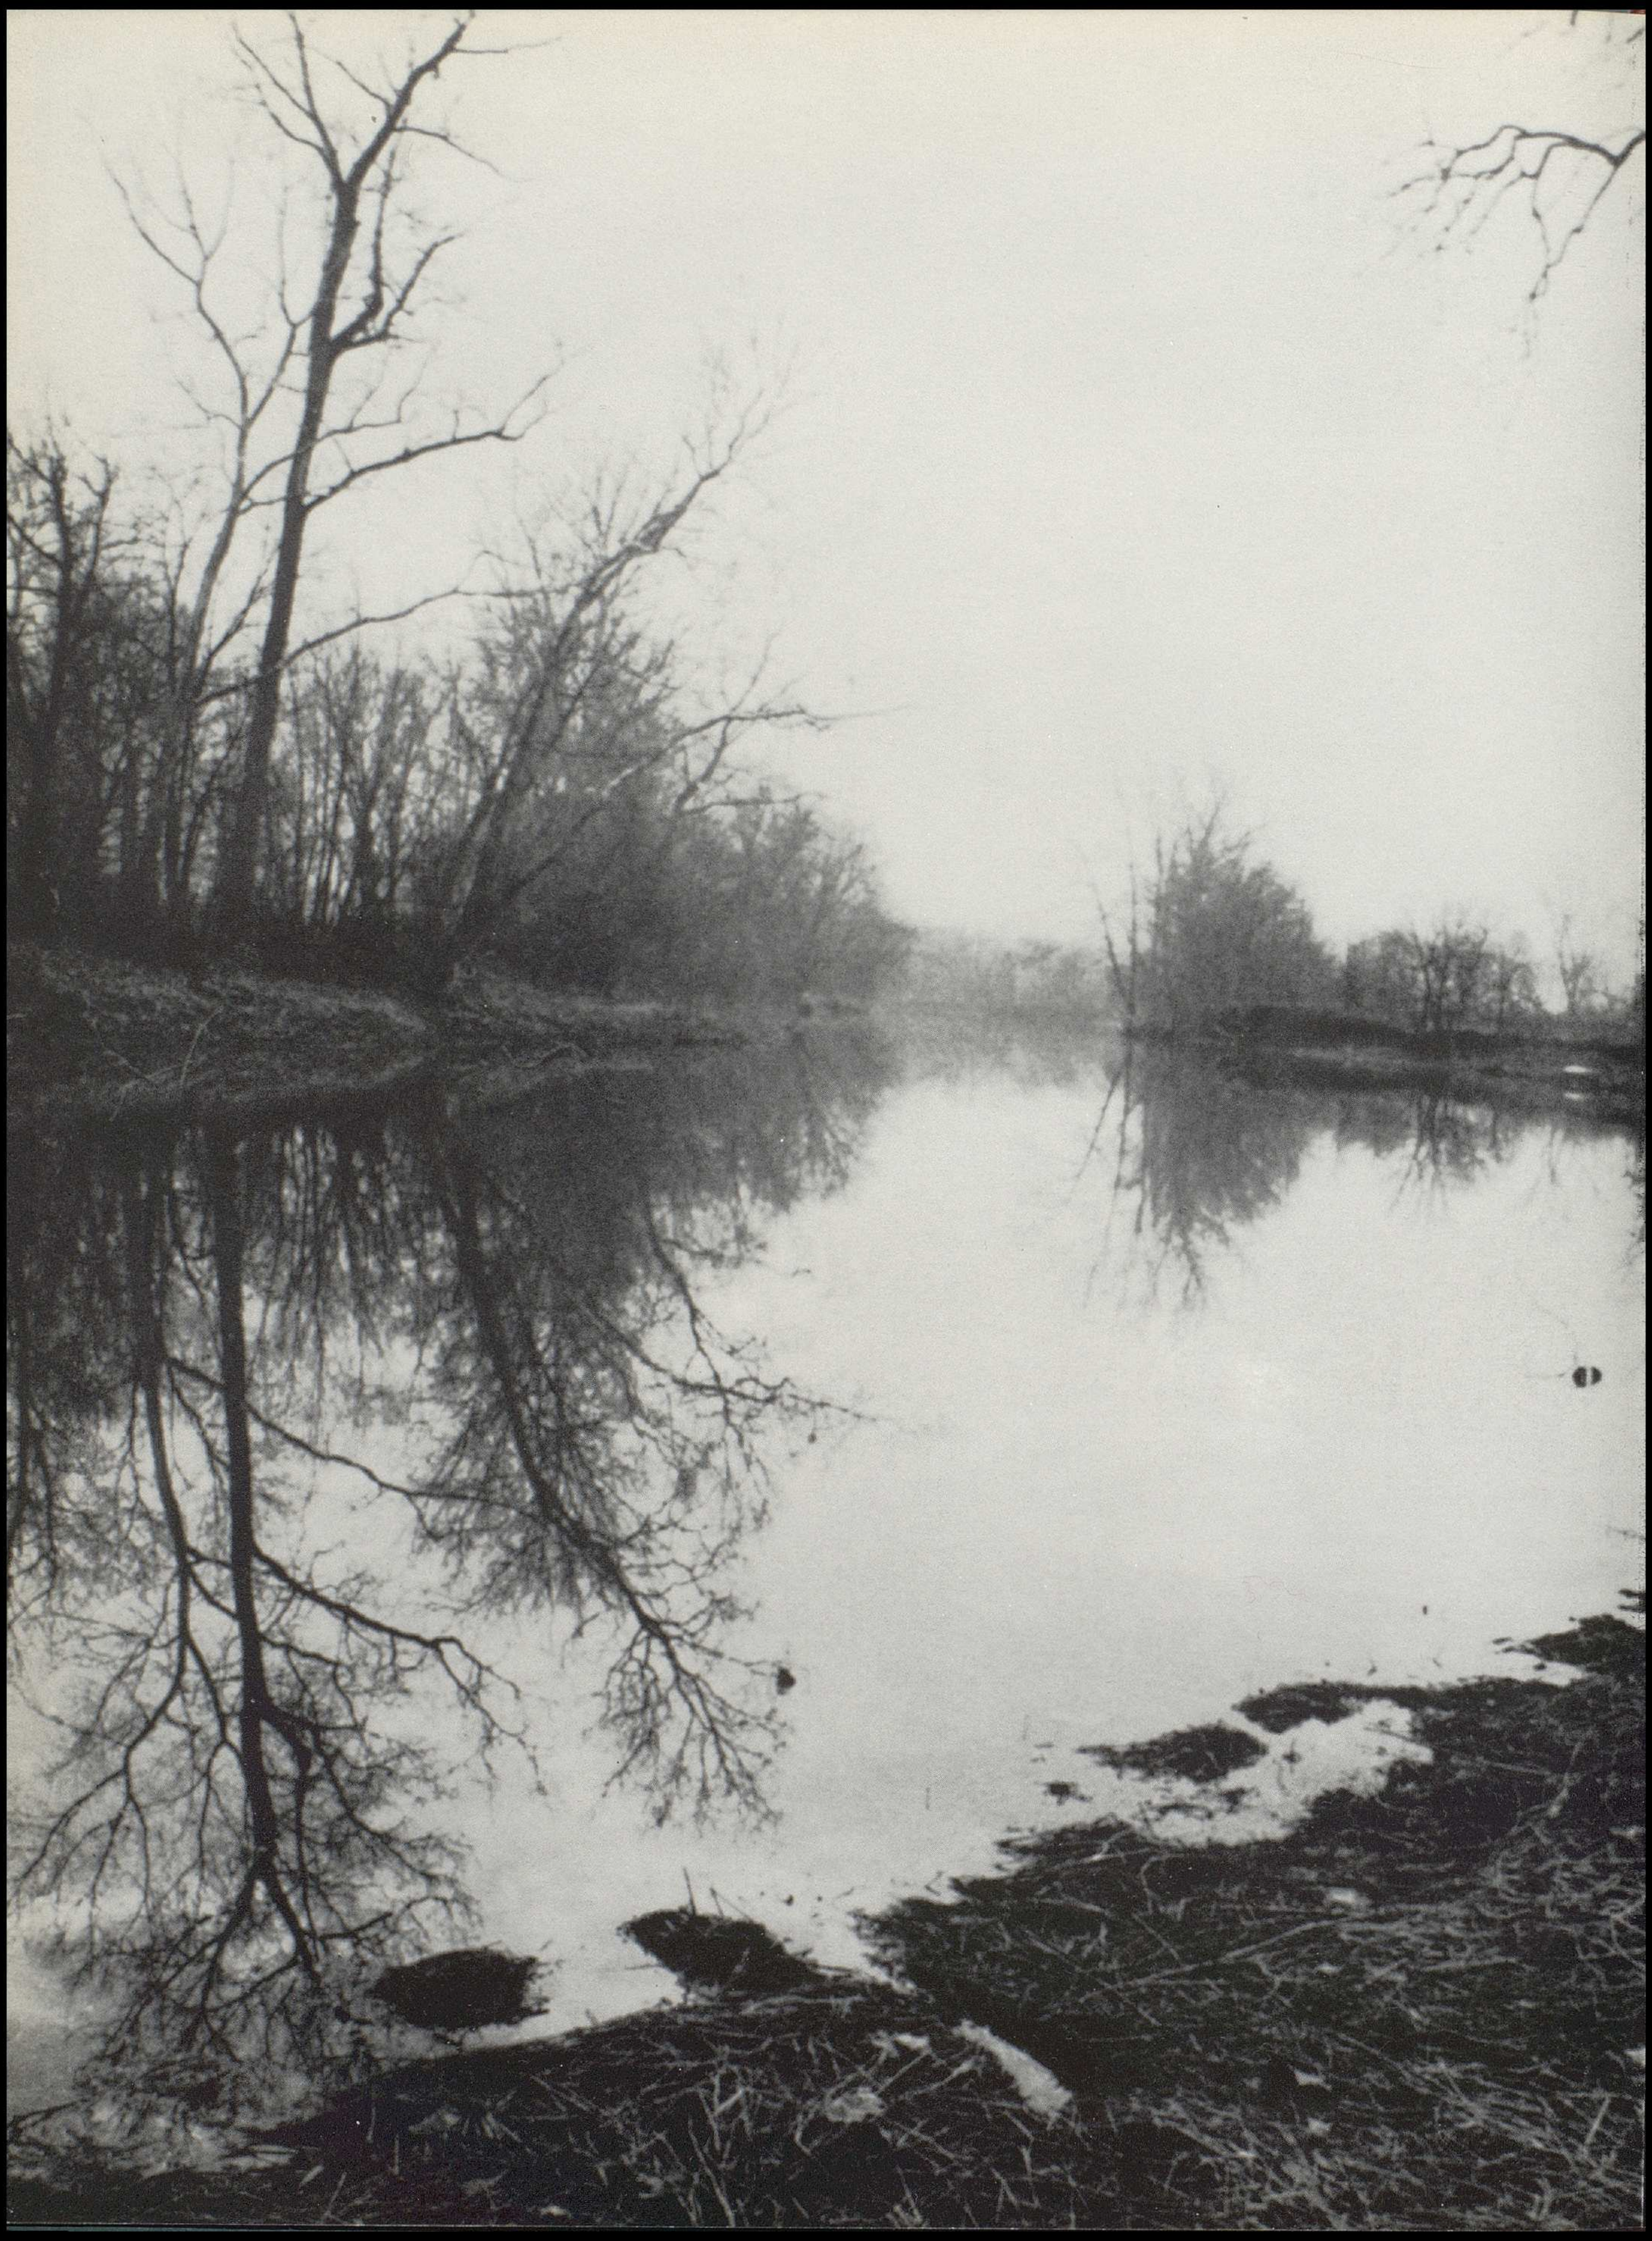
If you can dream—and not make dreams your master . . .
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son!

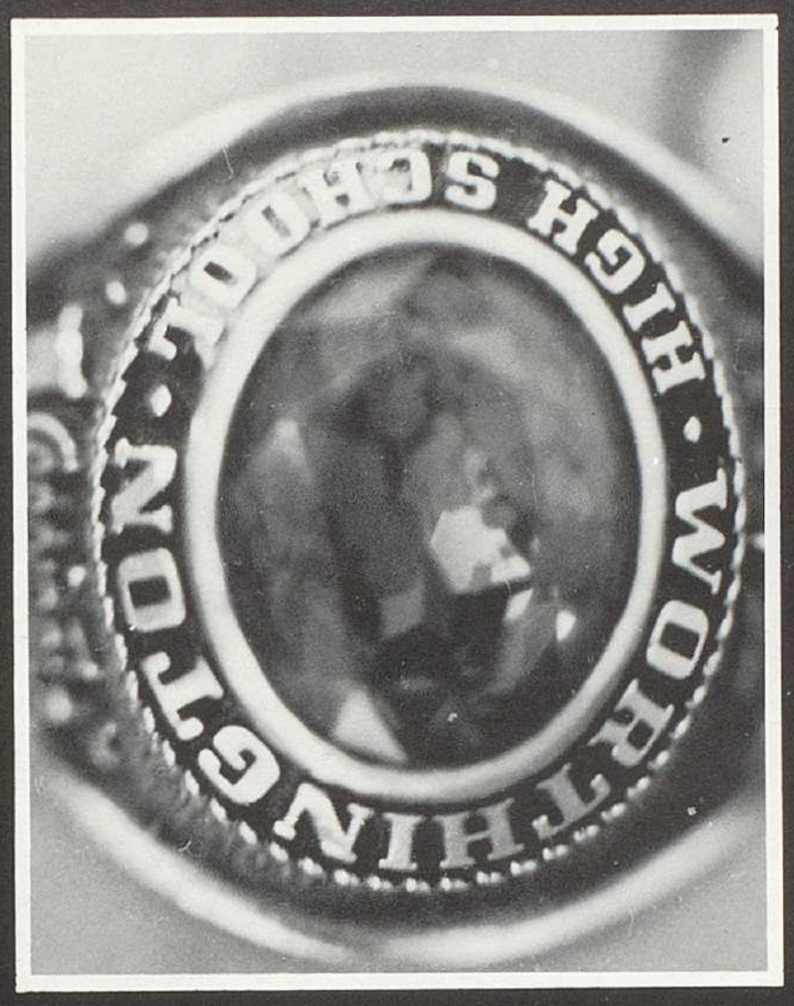
—Rudyard Kipling



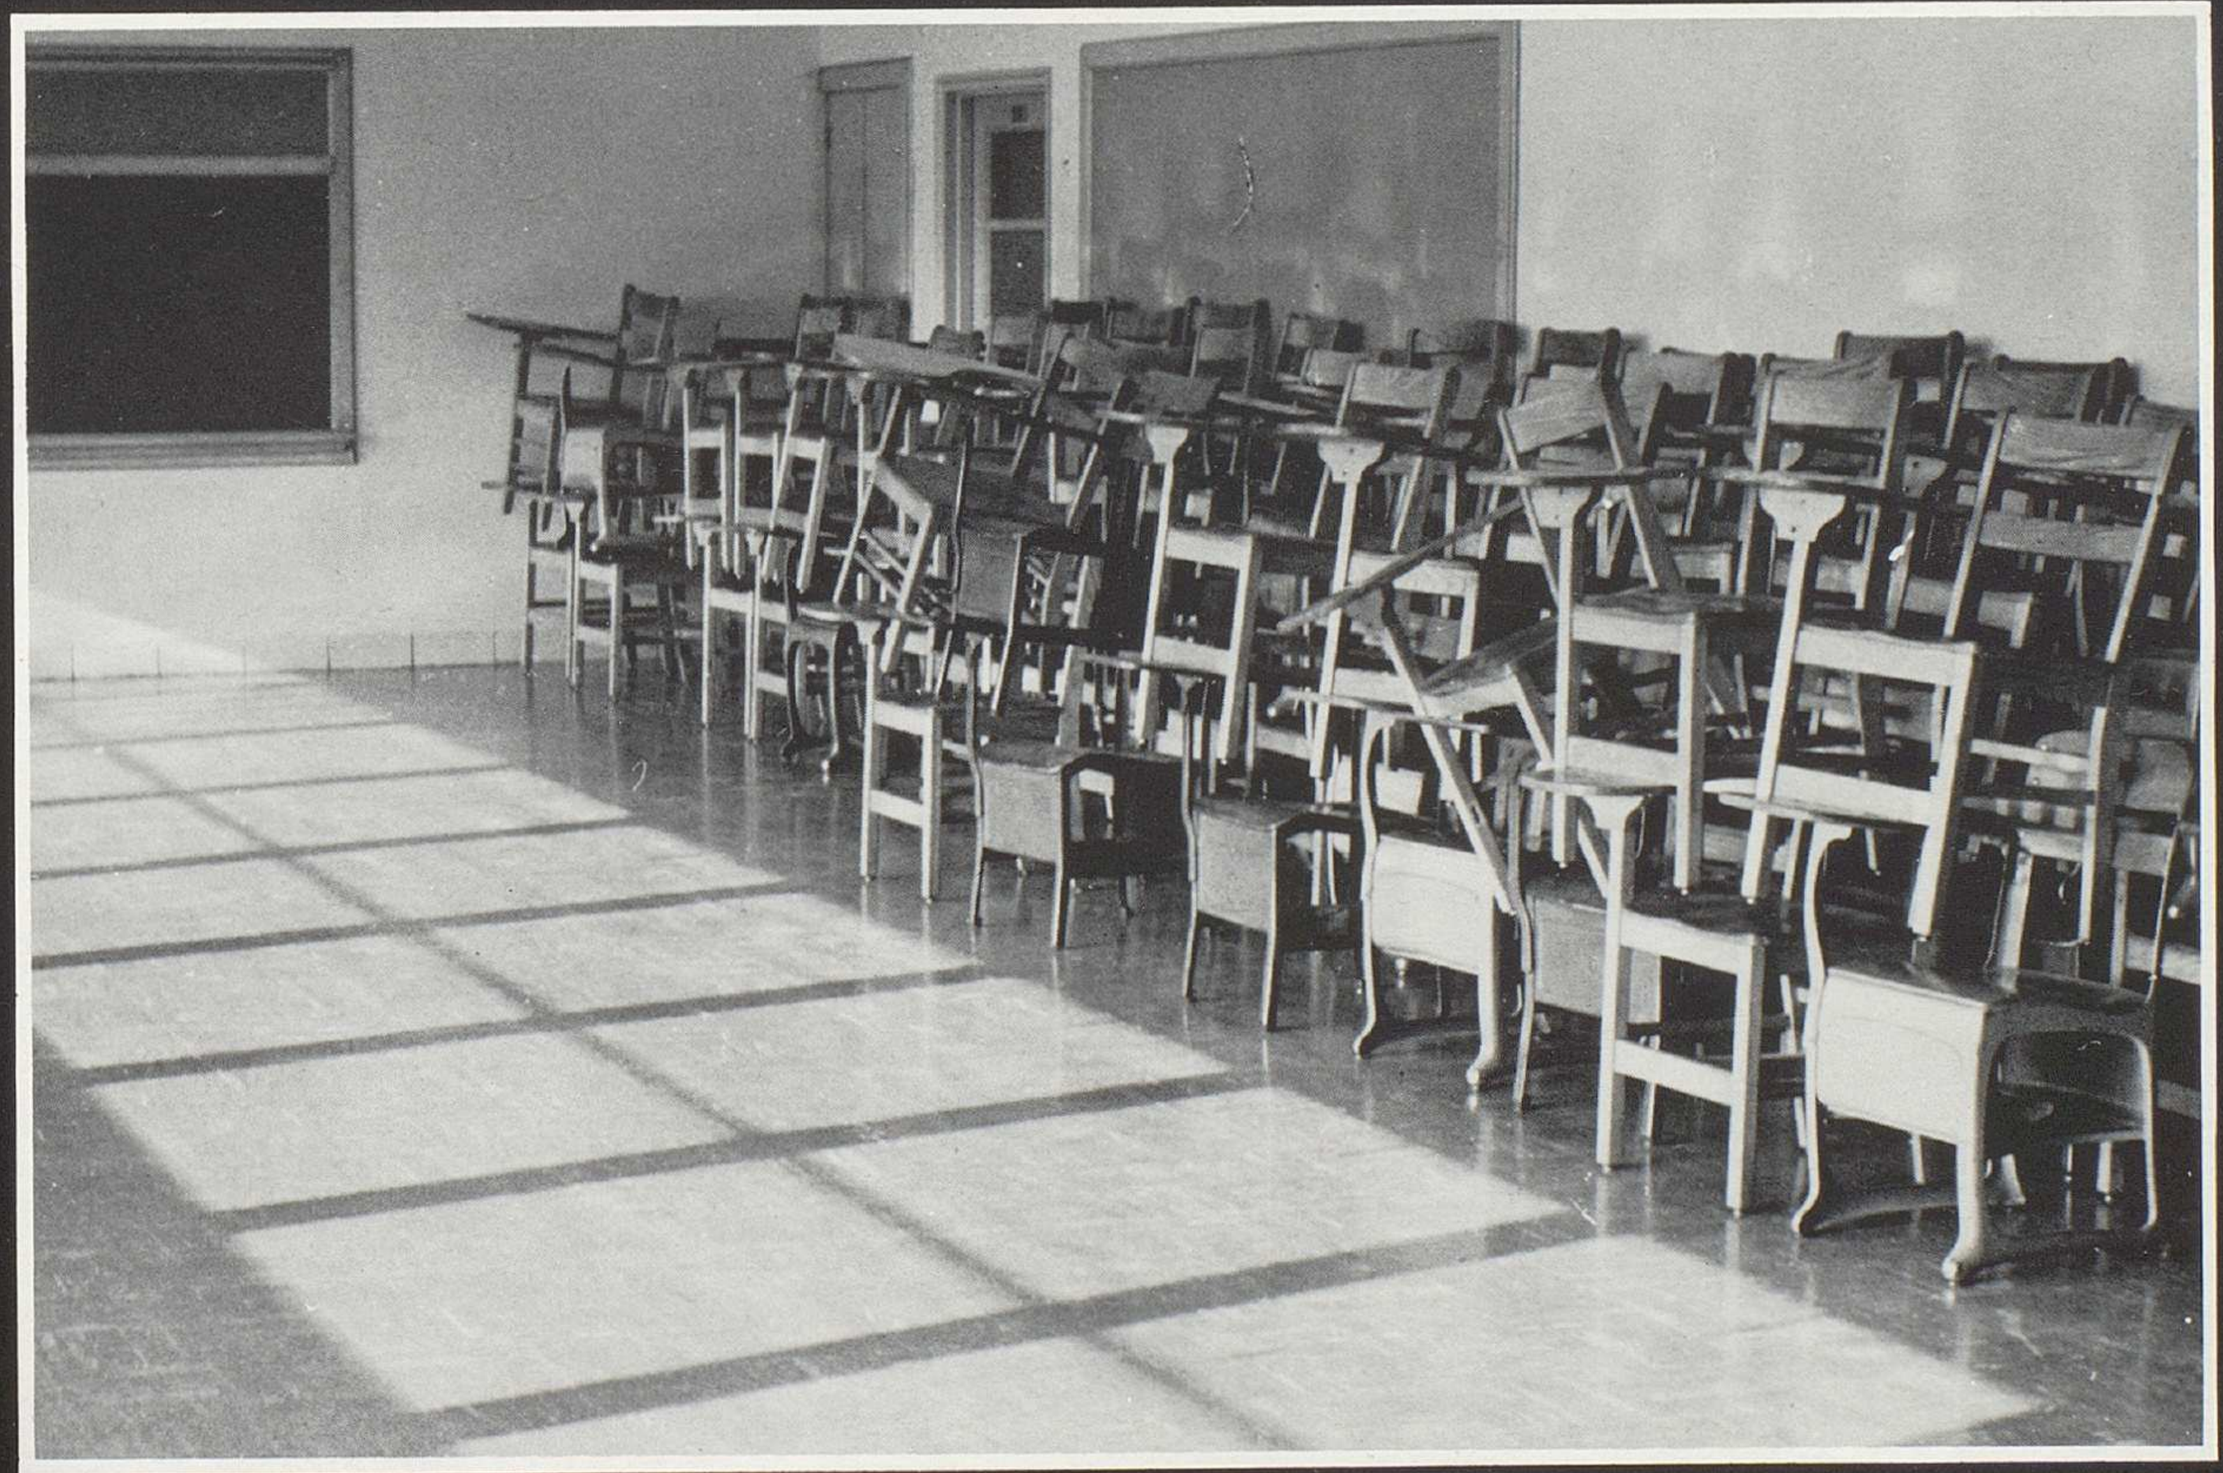
The very strength that protects the heart from injury is the strength that prevents the heart from enlarging to its intended greatness within. The song of the voice is sweet, but the song of the heart is the pure voice of heaven."

—Kahlil Gibran

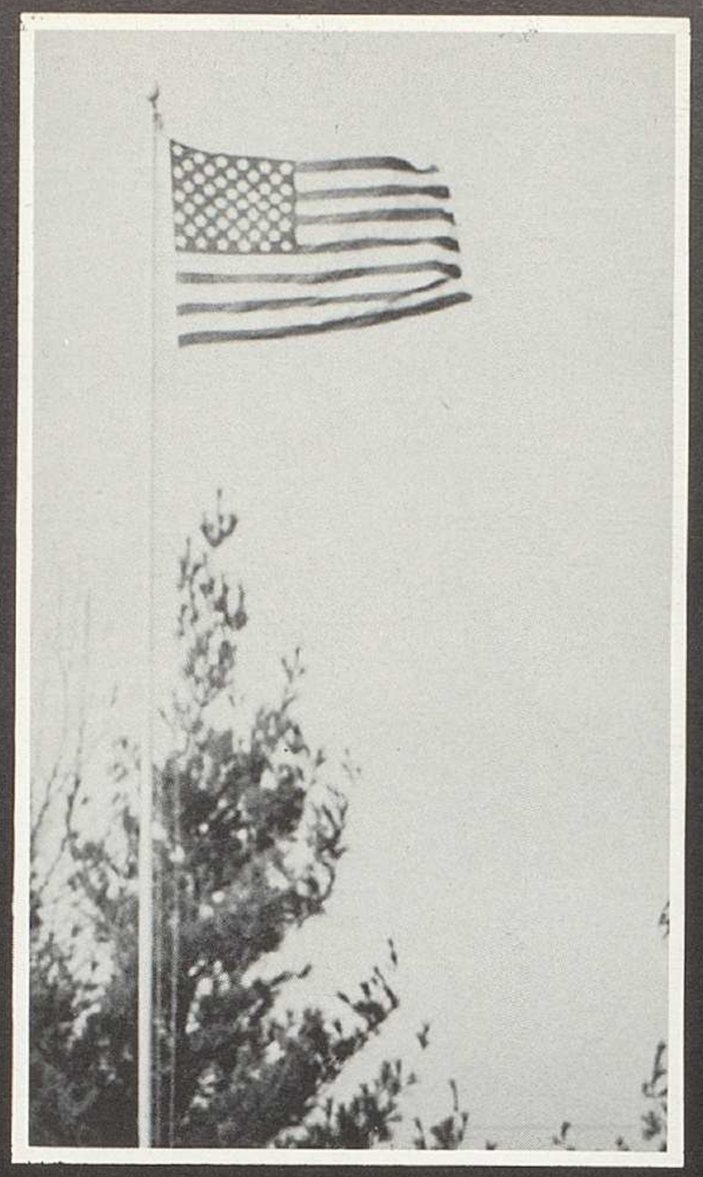


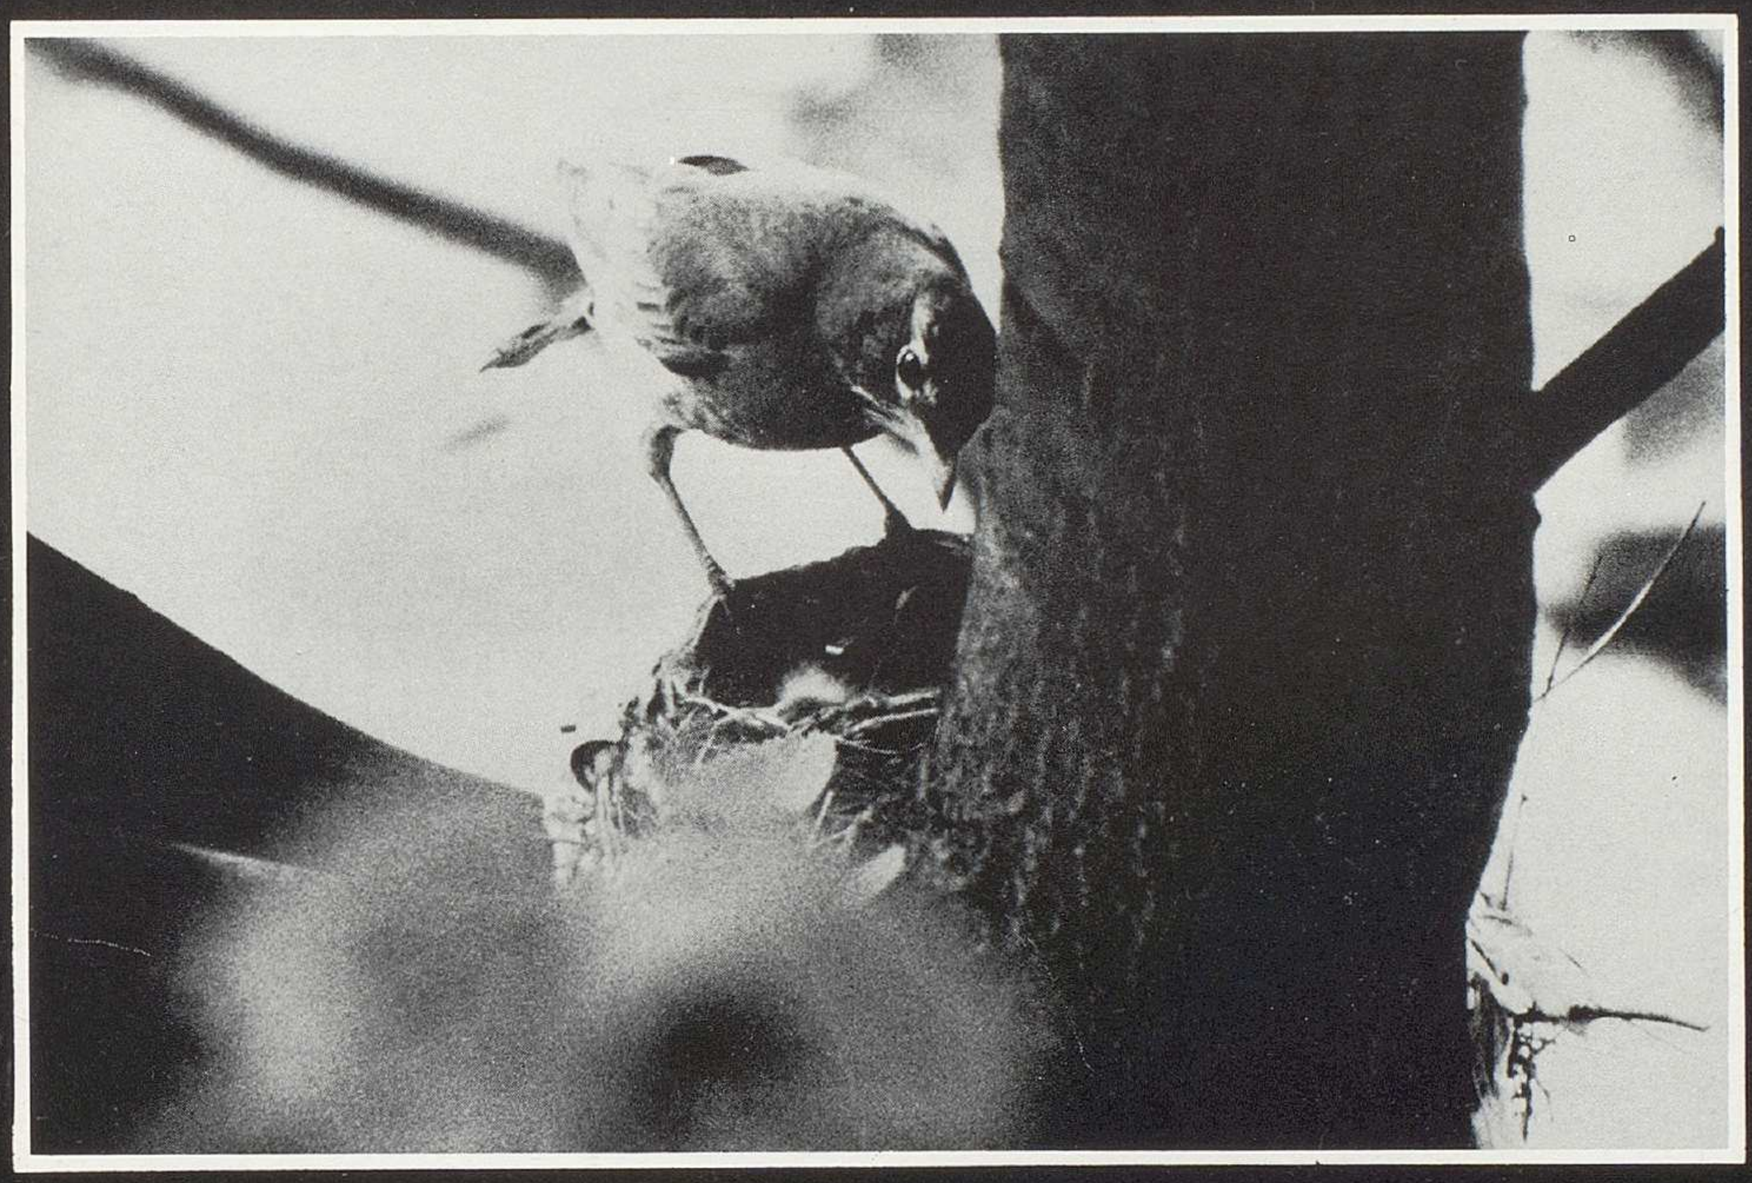


I stand at a crossroads in time
Reflecting upon images of moments past
Peering into the mists of the unknown future.
I feel the warmth of oneness with all mankind
I recognize the knowledge of loneliness and separation.

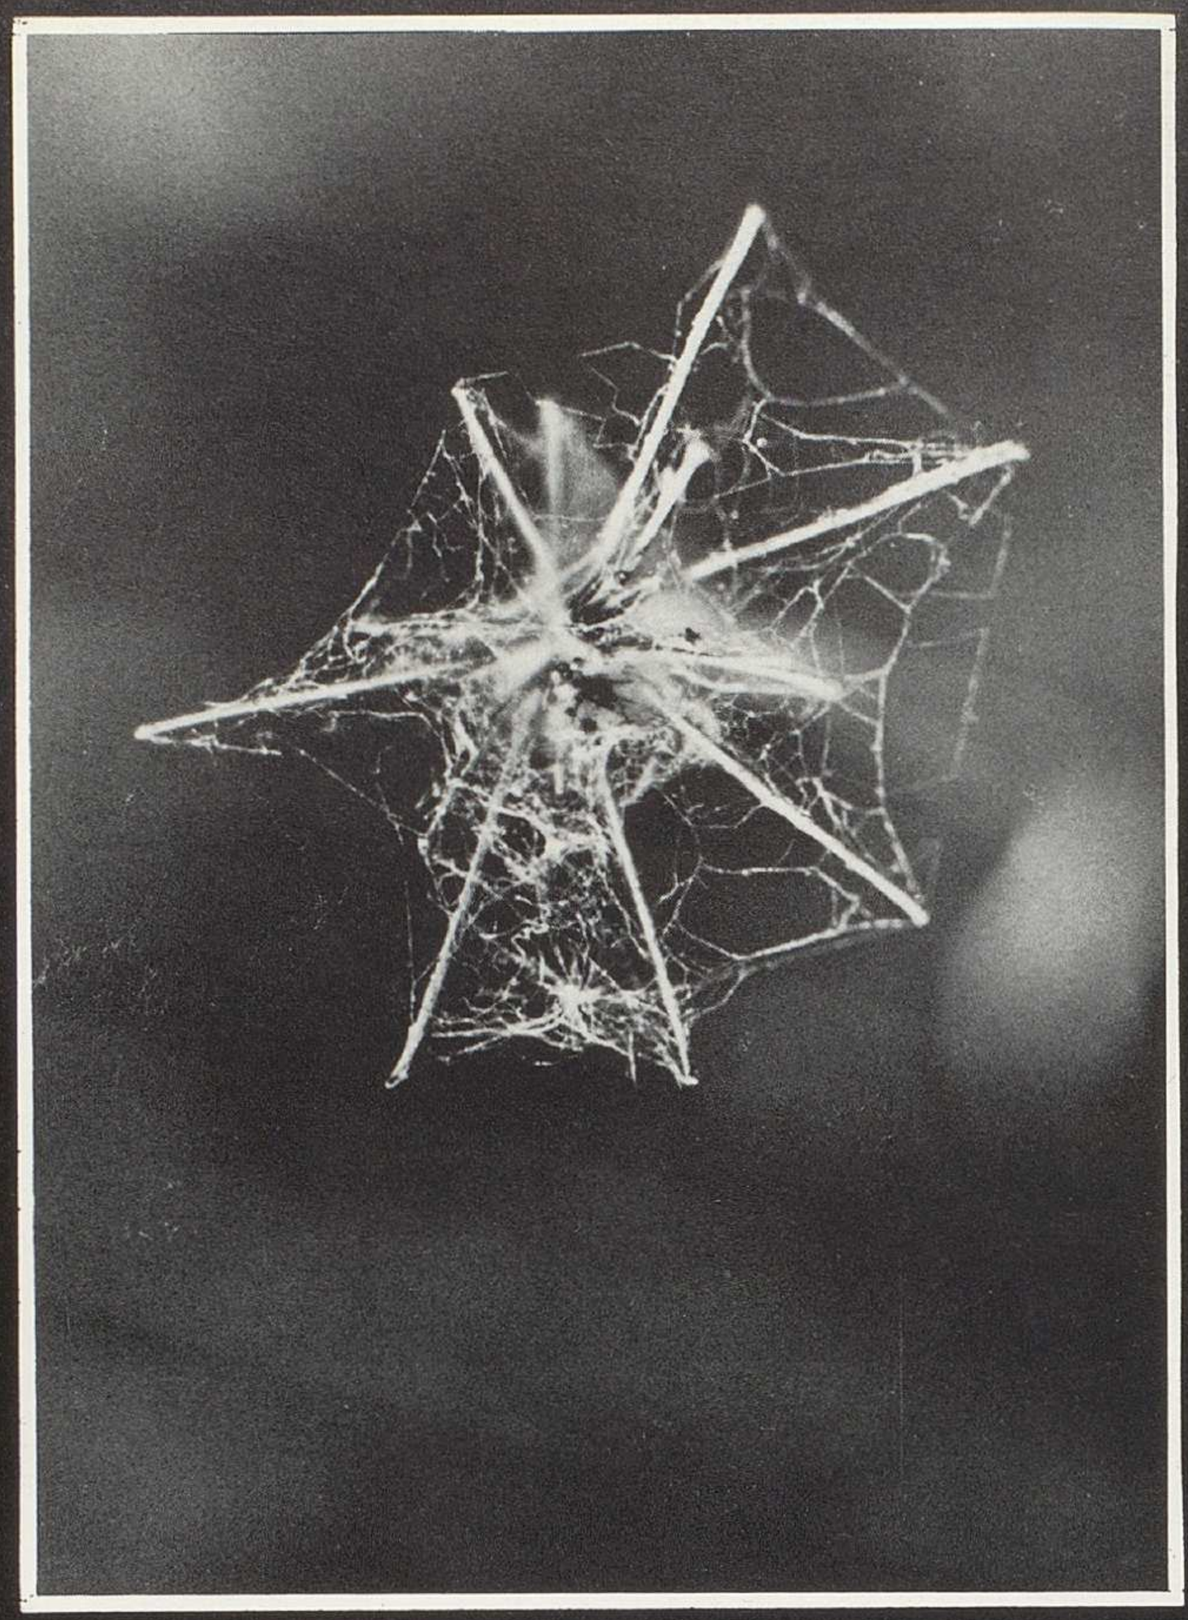


I reflect upon all I have learned
I have gained knowledge but not Knowledge,
I have discovered truth but not Truth.
I have traveled the road towards the Self
But found the road is endless.





I have seen a world of paradox and conflict
Where love and hate coexist
Where joy and sorrow walk hand in hand.
But today I stand and realize
This is the architecture of the World.



I have sought to scale the heights of Perfection
But found them unreachable
For I am a man.
Yet my destiny does not lie in insignificance
For I am a man.

I stand upon a plateau of life
Healing wounds of forgotten memories, Preparing for a journey of Cloud-rimmed peaks
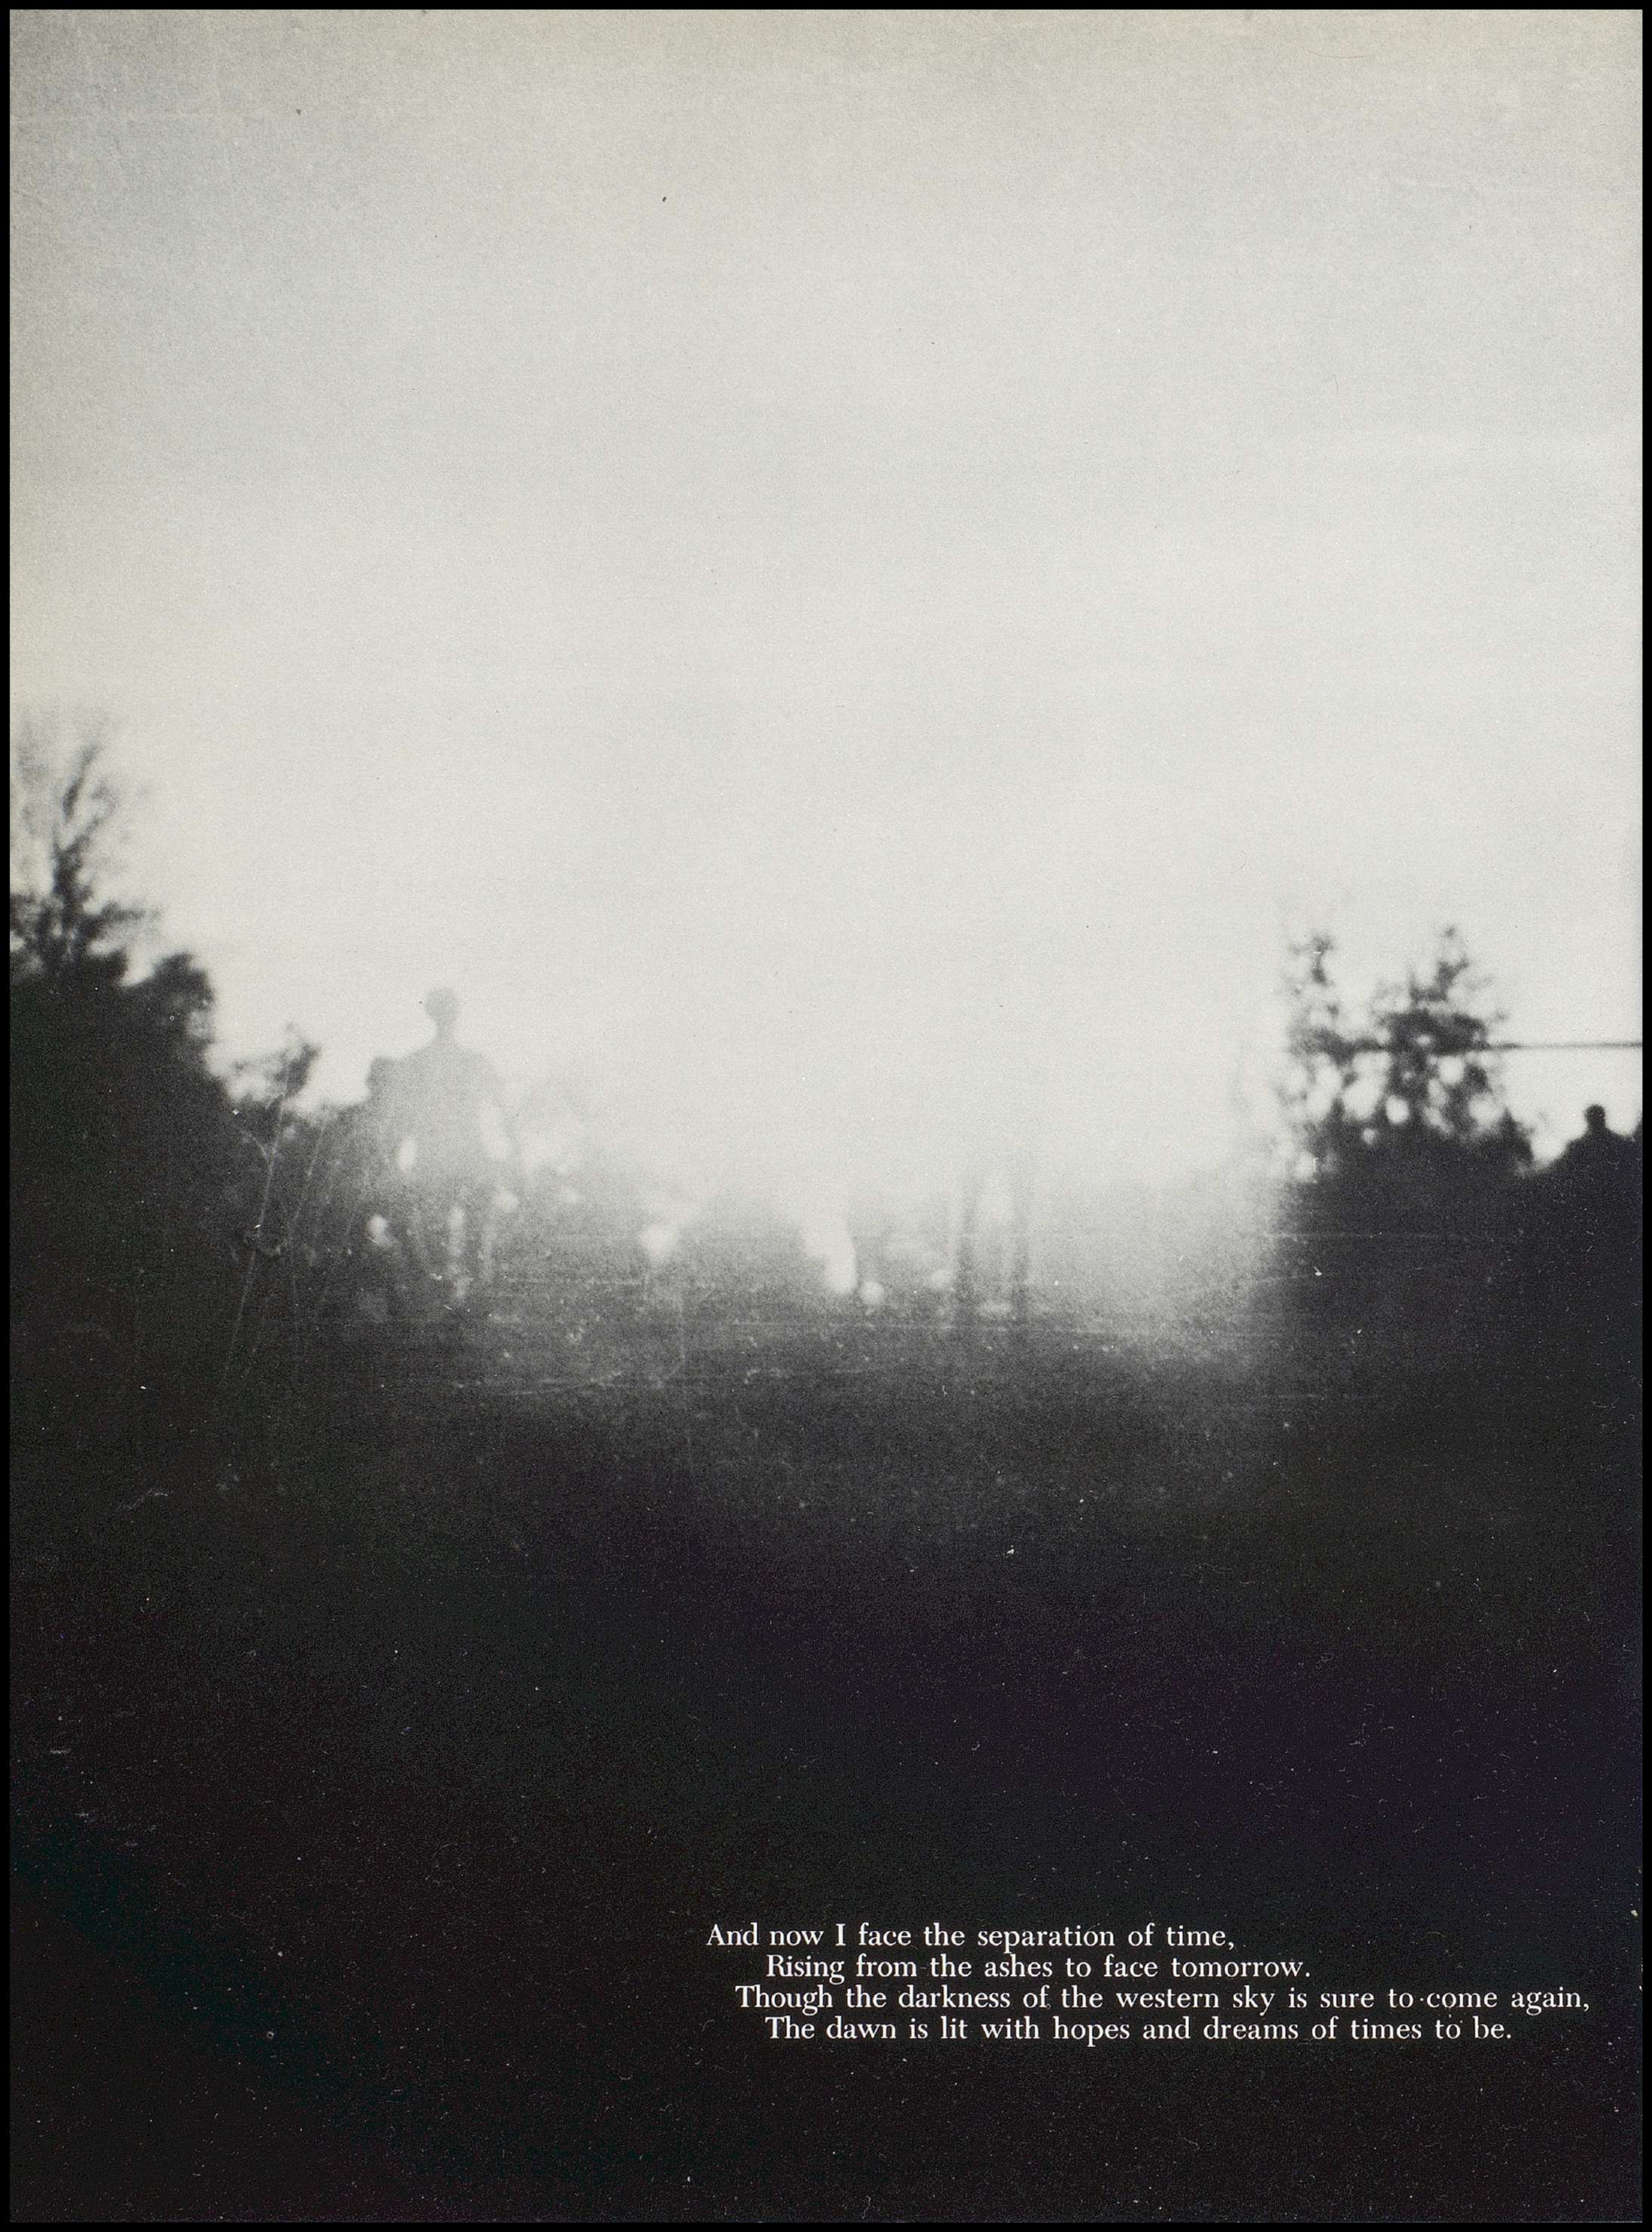
And unseen valleys.



And now I face the separation of time,
Rising from the ashes to face tomorrow.
Though the darkness of the western sky is sure to come again,
The dawn is lit with hopes and dreams of times to be.
