Sweet Summertime

EUROPE

Exciting Europe!

During the first couple weeks of the 2006 summer, 84 Kilbourne students, 8 chaparones, and 2 tour guides departed with director John Jordan on a one-of-a-kind sixteen day Ghosts of War trip to Europe. Since 1998, the history department has led a trip to Europe every other summer. Planning for the trip began about a year and a half before departure, allowing plenty of time to plan. For just a little over $3000 each, the students experienced the time of their lives. Their sixteen day tour of Europe included stops in England, France, and Belgium. Though the days spent in Paris proved to be the group's favorite part of the trip, some other notable sites were Stonehege, Bath, Normandy, the Somme battlefields, and the Westminster Abbey.

We traveled to France, and saw the Arc de Triumph, the Louvre, and Versailles Palace. We also went on a boat ride at night and saw the Eiffel Tower lit up. It was really an amazing sight. Some of us walked to see the Moulin Rouge; it was smaller than I had imagined. All my years in French class didn't help with the language barrier, though!

Q: What type of things did senior student council do this year?
A: We planned and made happen the winter dance, the senior graduation party, and other countless activities that require help from all the classes throughout the year.
Q: What type of things went into the senior graduation party?
A: First we decided to have it at GameWorks. Then we had to sit down and figure out the time and ticket price. After that everything just kind of fell into place.
Q: What was the most enjoyable activity you participated in this year?
A: The freshman Mentor experience. It was fun to hear what they had to say and I learned a lot from those crazy frosh!
Q: What impact do you hope to leave at Kilbourne?
A: I just hope I left it better then when I found it.
Q: Are you looking forward to planning the reunions?
A: FABSOLUTELY!!! I hope to see you all again in 2012! Good luck to everyone!

Wolves Fight for Homecoming Victory

The Kilbourne Wolves have reason for celebrating this season. Their win against Mt. Vernon marked the first homecoming victory since 2002 with the score of 55-14.

During the week of homecoming while the rest of the school planned their upcoming events of spirit week and the dance, Coach Trombetti and the football team spent their time preparing for the big game. "I prepared the guys by watching films, reviewing scouting reports, going over defensive and offensive plays, and motivating them a lot more; we wanted that 100th victory. Not only because it was homecoming, but it was also a special night because it was the field dedication to former Coach Gafford," said Trombetti.

The Wolves did not fair as well this season as in years past, but the attitude remains optimistic for the future. "We're not a bad team, we are just a young and inexperienced team who played a lot of hard teams this season," says senior captain M Northern.

With an overall record of 4 wins and 6 losses, jun Rodney Tate had a runaway season with 943 rushing yards. T season's defining game came when the Wolves offense rack up 505 rushing yards versus Mt. Vernon, setting a new sch record. Another highpoint was Angelo Gutierrez tying t school's record with a 99-yard return for a touchdown agai Dublin Jerome. Although the Wolves record does not fu portray their fighting spirit, they still managed to make ma definitive achievements in the season.

Great Season for boys soccer

The men's soccer season came to a close Saturday after losing to the number one seed, Gahanna in the District Championship game.

After a scoreless regulation game, the number eight seeded Wolves (11-6-2) took the Lions into overtime, and finished the game with a 1-0 loss.

Despite the final outcome, Coach John Sprunger is happy with how the season ended, as the team played very well throughout the past two games.

"We ended on a positive note by playing the best we have all season. We really stepped it up and controlled the game. To be able to take the number one seed into overtime is a great accomplishment of its own." said Sprunger.

"In the past, when Gahanna has been seeded ahead of us, Kilbourne has won so we were excited going into the game, because we thought we could do the same thing. We just came up a little short." said freshman starter Sage Gardner. Gardner, along with other young players had to step up and fill in varsity positions after multiple injuries throughout the season. "Our initial problem was finding who would play what role. The first couple of games we had to experiment with who was best at what," said Sprunger.

Girls' Varsity Soccer in Transition

The Lady Wolves' record does not show the real picture. They have faced a lot of transition.

After four years under Coach Courtney Irwin, the Lady Wolves entered 2006 with a new coach. "Because I am a female coach, I thought that if my replacement was female it would help the transition," said Irwin.

This year's coach, Kim Chianese, played soccer at Kilbourne until she graduated in 2001. Chianese also played collegiate soccer at Wright State.

In addition to the coaching changes, many of the starting defensive players from the winning '05-'06 season have graduated. "Our win-loss record is not good but we have improved since our first game," said Chianese. With the tournament now in progress, the team hopes to end the season on a winning note. Seniors to watch: Alex Allison, Crista McCormac, Whitney Denbow, Chris Hatcher, Megan Link, Brittany Mounts.

Although she has been absent this year, Irwin has been there in spirit, attending as many games as possible. "It has been weird to not be on the sidelines. I have been coaching high school soccer for nine years," said Irwin.

Due to the birth of her second child and teaching advanced placement biology, Irwin did not think it was fair to her players to coach.

Runners cap off successful season at state meet

A trio of cross-country runners finished a successful season for Kilbourne with a trip to Scioto Downs on Saturday, November 4th for the state meet. Supported by a large crowd of travelers on the Kilbourne spirit bus, John Batchelder and Dustin Ubbing placed 39th, and 53rd, respectively.

To prepare for the race, the runners went to Scioto Downs to look at the unique terrain and elevations of the course. Unlike in other sports, weather conditions and the actual track itself greatly affect a cross country athlete's performance.

"On Thursday, when we went to Scioto Downs, there were 45 mph winds, but the conditions were a lot better on Saturday," said Ubbing.

"It's also important not to over prepare for the race, because then you can get psyched out," said Ubbing.

Ubbing and Batchelder have set high goals for themselves as well as for the boys' team next season. "If guys come to the summer workouts and work at it, we can be top ten in the state," said Ubbing.

Runners Cap Off Successful Season at State Meet

A junior cross-country runner finished a successful season for Kilbourne with a trip to Scioto Downs on Saturday, November 4th for the state meet. Supported by a large crowd of travelers on the Kilbourne spirit bus, Claire Durkin placed 3rd .

"The atmosphere at states was a lot different. A ton more people came on the spirit bus to watch the race, which made it more exciting than OCC's or Districts," said Durkin.

After large winning margins in all of her previous races, she had a different experience running with the fastest in the state. "There were so many runners at the start, and they all started off pretty fast. It was also weird to run in a pack during the race," said Durkin.

To prepare for the race, the runners went to Scioto Downs to look at the unique terrain and elevations of the course. Unlike in other sports, weather conditions and the actual track itself greatly affect a cross country athlete's performance.

The successful meet inspired the runners to set high standards for next year. "Next year as a team obviously we would like to make it to states. Individually I want to improve my time and place higher than third at states," said Durkin.

Durkin has had the most successful season of any girl's cross-country runner in Kilbourne history. She has set and broken her own school record three times. Durkin also won all of her meets except for her first, which was against the 2005 defending state champion, and the state meet.

Boys Water Polo Captains Mitch Dickson and Eric Keller Share Their Thoughts on the Season

How did the team do overall this year? "We did better than everyone expected,[since we had] only two starters from last year returning. We started off slow but throughout the year we progressively got better. We had a lot of new people and a really young team."

What major improvements were made? "We improved our team chemistry and team work. We spent a lot of time being in the pool together, getting to know each other and doing things outside of practice like going out to dinner and hanging out.

How did the team do at regionals? "We definitely could've played better. We did a lot of things right but also a lot of things wrong which lead to a loss."

What plans do you have for next year's team? "To come back better than we ended this year and to make a run at states."

What was the best part of the season? "Watching the team progress thoughout the year and getting to know all the guys."

What are the major differences in the team from last year? "Mostly experience. Last year we had five seniors who started, and this year we only had one senoir. It's weird since last year we were the underclassmen and being told what to do but this year we're required to step up and tell everyone else what to do and produce results every game."

27-5 Declares a Strong Season

The Worthington Kilbourne Girls Water Polo team had a tremendous season, ultimately placing third in the state, and taking the Ohio Cup. The Wolves lost to Upper Arlington 8-4 in the state semifinals, but defeated Cincinnati Milford 9-4 in a consolation final. During the consolation, goalkeeper Kelsey Grubaugh provided nine saves and, Kelsey Sutton led the team with three goals. Additional goal scorers included Mackenzie Callahan and Brooke Dahn with two goals, and Brittany Dahn and Rachel Neiger with one goal each.

"The girls were a little disappointed," said coach Mike deBear, "We had more wins than any other team in Kilbourne history and if they look back on the season to our performances against Milford and the Ohio Cup, they're going to realize what a great year they had."

The Wolves had a program-best 27 wins to 5 losses. Sutton led with 87 goals, followed by Brittany Dahn with 80 goals and Neiger with 30.

The Girls Water Polo team, dispite their excellent performance in the pool, discoved the meaning of teamwork and spirit, building upon the foundation that last year's junior's laid down.

Second Chance for Girls Tennis

This year the girls tennis team had a very successful season. Since the team did not have any graduating seniors last year, the wolves had an experienced varsity team, consisting of three seniors, and four juniors. Freshman, Sonya Subramuium proved to be a valuable addition to the varsity line up. This created a lot of leadership from the upperclassmen and forced the underclassmen to prove themselves on the court once again.

"We were a really close team, being together for two seasons. We experienced good chemistry on and off the court," says senior co-captain Jackie Nourse.

The wolves found themselves in the running for an OCC title, but came just short after losing to Dublin Jerome and Pickerington North. After beating out Wetstone and Bishop Watterson in sectional, seniors Katie Schottke and Jackie Nourse successfully qualified for doubles in the District tournament. After an intense battle on the court Schottke and Nourse lost in the third set to Desales.

Despite the disappointing loss, the ladies were still proud of their high school season and teammates.

A First Time for Everything

This year, the WKHS women's Volleyball team won OCC's for the first time. The undefeated team in their OCC division besides one loss to Westerville South was given their title last Thursday. "We beat them once, and they beat us once. Other than that both of our teams were undefeated in OCC's. If both of us would've won the rest of our games for the season we would've been tied for first. Last Thursday we won our game and our team figured they won too. Westerville South played Dublin Jerome that night, so I called one of my friends from Jerome to ask them who won. She told me that they beat South and we all freaked out cause we knew we had won OCC's!" said senior, Brianna Foreman.

Coach Meladee Hopkins has seen a lot of potential and had a good feeling about the team from the beginning of the season. "This year's team may not be the most talented team I've ever had, but they all work together well. It's more about the team, not about individuals. They have an attitude that just says 'you aren't going to beat us, we will win.' The team unity and hard work really did go a long way," Hopkins explained.

This title is a very big accomplishment for the team because it has never been done before in the history of WKHS Women's Volleyball. "We've been talking about the fact that this year was a good year to take care of business. When we went undefeated for so long we knew we had a good chance. Even when Westerville South beat us the second time, I told the team that if we win the next few games we are still guaranteed at least a tie. The rest fell into place and we got lucky because Dublin Jerome beat South," said Coach Hopkins.

Boys Golf Coach Talks to the Sentinel about their Season

Going into the season, Coach Meeks believed that the team would finish strong in the OCC's, "We had a few returning letterwinners. The only thing we were lacking was major experience," said Meeks. Adam Kiminas proved to be the backbone of the squad, according to Meeks, "but all of the guys contributed at one point or another in the season." The team finished 2nd in Ohio Capital Conference play. "We 3rd right up the wire behind Mt. Vernon, the boys really pushed hard and we edged in front of them." The boys finished behind former state champions, Dublin Jerome, who was at the edge to repeat again. Next season, the Wolves return 3 of 4 OCC honorees and return 4 letterwinners. Meeks strongly believes that if the boys have a strong off-season that they could make a run toward states again. "The thing we lacked the most the past season was experience, we only have a few returning letterwinners. Next year, we don't think it's going to be a problem, we are returning four letterwinners and we have very high hopes for the team next year."

A season of Ups and Downs

Even though Girls Golf had a very up and down season, making record for the best and worst match played in Kilbournes history, the girls still enjoyed their season.

The Girls golf team this year was a very close knit group of girls. They took an all day trip to Alum Creek where they went tubing, water skiing, had a picnic, and got to know each other better. "This was the best team bonding activity that we did throughout my entire high school career. It was an all day event but this really bonded all the girls together." Michelle Sabo shared with us. According to Michelle, some of the other highlights of their season were the van rides to matches, and making it to districts by only a couple of strokes.

The team had some great players this season, having Michelle Sabo being first team OCC, Elizabeth Brennan second team OCC, Kathy Johnston receiving honorable mention, and Sarah Lusk making academic all- ohio. One thing the team said they needed to work on was being more consistant. "We would have on good day then have on bad day. But we needed to have weeks where we played all well."

A Season to Rebuild

It was a rebuilding year for the Lady Wolves' Field Hockey Team. With the loss of nine seniors they had to work harder and come together as a brand new team. The girls learned the value of teamwork, goal setting, and spirit. This year's seniors: Heather DeSantis, Abbie Grimes, and Nicole Londeree, hope to have instilled these quailities in the younger girls.

"I hope that the underclassmen will find unity between their team and work together to pull off some remarkable wins in the future, such as beating Thomas for the first time," says senior Abbie Grimes.

Despite the lack of victories, the wolves faught hard in every game they played; never giving up and always being the optimists. They never let the opposing team get the best of them. However, in this season of growth, players have made memories and gained knowledge of how the game is really played: with your teammates.

Working their way to the top

With nine seniors, one junior, and five sophomores, this year's Wolves varsity cheerleading squad is the youngest in Kilbourne's history. Despite the youth, the squad accomplished much during the season and bonded together as a team.

Leading our young squad this year were seniors Katie Abate, Kristin Anderson, Paige Brudzinski, Annie Cercone, Ashley Coen, Brittany DeRoche, Kristen Nooks, Sarah Sterbenz and Jamie Tout. Having so many seniors on squad helped teach younger cheerleaders the ropes of varsity and the leadership they'll be continuing in upcoming seasons.

The junior varsity squad was mixed with sophomores and juniors. Throughout the season, the squad improved greatly. The two juniors on the team, Nicole Hammond and Mackenzie Hills, both showed great leadership in guiding the sophomores and a few new girls to the team this year.

The freshman squad worked extremely hard and showed off their season's practice at the varsity homecoming game. The team proved that they will belong on the varsity scene in just a year or two.

This season was a success for all three squads. Although the football team's record wasn't the best, they cheered on and supported the boys throughout the whole season!

Boys Basketball gear up for a stellar season

The Wolves had special plans to conquer their opponents not just through hard work during the off-season, but also through intelligent game play. The Wolves planed to use their stamina in order to play faster, and in doing so, wear-out their opponents. This ensured to make the games even more interesting. The senior class this year took on the difficult challenge of stepping up to fill the last year team's legacy.

"I am extremely proud of the effort that the players have been putting forth. They have improved a lot since April," said head coach Tom Souder.  Boys Basketball geared up for a stellar season Souder has been head coach at Kilbourne for the last seven years. One of the best seasons of Wolves Basketball was last season's 13-9 record.

With the change of the OCC league, the Wolves then faced a new, difficult, season. The team this year has already proven that they are ready to work hard in order to overcome these challenges.

"We need to not only work harder but work smarter," said Souder. The players started a rigorous training schedule last April. By this, the Wolves already showed that they are committed to this season.

Lady Wolves Show Improvement

In a 9 win, 10 loss regular season record; a jump up from the previous 2 years, the Lady Wolves faced an entirely new coaching staff. Social Studies teacher Dave Strausbaugh took on the new role at the helm.

After a slow start to the season, the Lady Wolves beat Olentangy High School 55-47 for their first OCC win. That was not the only highlight of the season. "In the seniors' high school careers, we had never once beaten Mt. Vernon. They beat us the first time, but when we played them at home, we pulled off a nine point victory. This was one of the highest points of the season," said senior Michelle Pisaneschi. "The girls got more comfortable with their roles on the team and the coaching staff. They also developed confidence. They realized that they could beat teams that had beaten them earlier in the year," said Strausbaugh.

With new, more difficult faces in the Ohio Capital Conference, the Wolves finished short of a championship in league play. The Lady Wolves' season came to an end when they battled Dublin Coffman, a six-seed in the district tournament.

Next preseason, the Lady Wolves don't plan to do anything dramatically different. "A big challenge for us is that we play in a tough league. A lot of teams have a lot of talented players returning. We'll have our hands full," said Strausbaugh.

New coach hopes for success

The Kilbourne Ice Hockey team started practicing regularly in November. This year, the Wolves have a new coach, Todd Piche. He had a lot of off-ice activities going on like shooting pucks after school, lifting weights, stick handling, or even just studying the game.

Coach Piche had many goals for this year, "This year I just hope to get the guys on a routine and make them understand what it means to work hard and play the sport the way it should be played. I hope they play with intensity and a lot of pride for the jersey they will be wearing out on the ice this season."

Piche wanted the players to learn to play together. "The things I feel every team needs and what I hope to bring to the team as their coach are as follows: Work ethic, team work, intensity, heart, and pride for the team you play for," said Piche.

The hockey team played at the Chiller North this year and hoped that everyone would come out for the games. "The guys are working very hard to put together the best season yet and it would be great to have the student body supporting them as fans," said Piche.

This year, the hockey team had 3 seniors; Colin Veatch, Grant Patmon, and Cannon Caswell.

Lady Wolves' Cartwheel their way to the end of the season

At the start of the season, outlook was positive for the gymnastics team. "We started conditioning in September so we could be in shape earlier and out the season stronger. It gave us a lot more time to clean our routines, because there is always improvement," said senior Katie Kochert.

Motivation came from far out places this year for the Wolves', "When we score higher than our previous scores, it motivates us," said Kochert. On a look back into the season, Kochert said that "The kidnapping, team dinners, team sleepovers" are some of the most memorable highlights. Spirit week has always been a big deal. You can see the Wolves' wearing all kind of outfits and shirts that are written on.

The girls proved that the preseason training went well, finishing 6th in districts as a team and beating Thomas in every meet that they competed against them in.

Kochert remains positive for next year's team. "The team looks really good for next year. This year's freshman were and amazing group and really helped our team scores. I know the incoming freshman and everyone else will really step it up next year and have a great season."

Boys Rebuilding Year

The Boys swimming team started off the season as a rebuilding year. After losing many important swimmers from the 2 years previous, the boys swimming lacked experience, but not heart.

Finishing short of a championship in OCC competition, the team went on to search for their identity. Their identity became the amazing support they offered to their team-mates.

Junior Phil Bunting qualified for the state tournament in the 500-yard freestyle; the longest event in high school swimming. Although he was the only swimmer there, the boys kept his confidence high during the meet, cheering on loudly.

The team remains confident for next season. The team will gain much more experience entering next year, and look to regain their OCC domination and qualify many more for states.

Girls Swimming has sucessful season

Starting the season without many impact seniors, The Wolves' expectations were not as high as previous years, but diversity proved to be the strong point to the Wolves. The Lady Wolves proved that they were capable of nearly anything they had accomplished by winning the OCC's. One individual, Brittany Dahn, qualified for the 100 and 200-yard freestyle state meet. Dahn, teamed with sibling Brooke Dahn, Rachel Neiger, and Yasmine Ghoodoosi qualified for states in the 200-yard freestyle relay.

"States went pretty well, everyone placed higher and finished strong," said Brittany Dahn. The lady Wolves hope to carry the momentum and finish stronger next year.

The Girl's diving team finished its' strongest in years. Kristin Jaffe, Kathleen Cipicchio, and Chelsea Ostiguy all finished in Districts this year. They also hope to carry the momentum into next season.

"We had many good swims, but the highlight was seeing everyone improve," said coach Jim Callahan.

Hopes of Taking the OCC Title Fuels Wolves

As Kilbourne wrestling looks to improve in the 2006-2007 season, the team continues to search for more athletes to take the mat. Last year, the wrestling team struggled through a 1-4 OCC conference record. With new head coach Sean Cooke at the helm, the Wolves are in high spirits for a better outcome this season. Ohio high school wrestling consists of 14 weight classes ranging from 103 lbs. to 275 lbs. Due to the range of needed athletes, Kilbourne wrestling accepts all participants—no cuts. "We are always looking to recruit," said Cooke. Athletes who play spring or fall sports should consider wrestling as an alternative to off -season training in the winter. "The skills that we use in wrestling are instantly applicable to other sports. Wrestling helps kids use leverage and positioning to their advantage, improves footwork, and helps coordination," said Cooke. "Wrestlers develop a kind of physical toughness that is unparallel to any other sport. Our athletes stay in great physical shape." Cooke, as well as co-captains Grant Steward and Ian Cook, have set a lot of expectations for the season. "We want to bring home some tournament hardware," said Cooke. That would mean finishing within the top three spots of any tournament on the schedule. Off -season training continues until early November when the season begins. The team meets in the weight room after school on Monday-Wednesday-Friday and open mat practices are on Sundays at 2:00 pm. Open mat provides a great way for beginners to learn the basics of wrestling before the season starts. "Wrestling is a tough sport, but we have a great set of guys in a very positive atmosphere," said Cooke.

Preparing for Nationals

The Kilbourne Cheerleaders have been preparing, since May, to compete for many titles around Ohio. In the past, Kilbourne's competition team has taken the OCC title along with placing extremely high at Nationals and other competitions.

This year, the team has already competed twice and has placed well both times. With the lack of girls left on the squad, the team is struggling to uphold their traditions.

"Three girls have quit [competition] so far this year so we've had to change a lot of our routine. It's been tough, but we always push hard to keep making our performances better," said junior cheerleader, Ivy Lumpkin.

The team is beginning to realize that getting comfortable with the original routine is not an option for them. The constant change may be stressful for some girls but the stress does not show through on the cheer floor.

Although the team has gotten off to a rocky start, some of the cheerleaders still have expectations for the season. Meghan McBrien's expectations for the season are "to kick butt at nationals and to place first at OCC's."

Although a few girls may feel that the squad has fallen apart, many only foresee room for growing. As the girls continue to perform around the country, many will promise themselves that only the positive attitude may come along.

New Coach, New Players, New Team Unity for Boys Lacrosse.

With new coaching, the boys lacrosse team has gotten off to a fast start. They started out losing one out of six games, losing a close battle against Cincinnati St. Xavier. The team is coming off of a 12 and 6 season last year, and are 11 and 4 thus far."We are doing a lot better than we expected us to do, with a new head coach," said sophomore player Pat Riffee.

Mike Riffee, the new head coach, is shutting down any doubt of a disappointing season. He paid attention to the flaws of the team and worked on them to make the team improve. "He taught us how to learn from our mistakes." Said junior player Nick Beattie.

Along with the new coaching position, new players on varsity are also filling some big roles on the team. New sophomore additions to the team makes the team young and unexperienced, but they are living up to their expectations. "They are hard workers, and they are learning to get into the new system. They're athletic, and skilled, and I expect big things of them in the future." Beattie said.

In addition to the new faces, the team has more team unity this year. The boys have gotten closer through the community service project called 'Man up'. The project allows the boys to become better citizens by giving back to the community and improving the community as well. Players spent time at the Dowd Center, an after school program which provides activities for homeless children, and taught the children how to play lacrosse. They also helped out with the Mid Ohio Food Bank, and helped clean up the grounds at Kilbourne.

Q & A with co-captian Michaela Minichello

Q: How would you describe the team's progress this year?

A: We kept working hard and getting better, our goal was to keep improving each day and that is what we did.

Q: How did the team prepare in the pre-season?

A: Lifting, running and throwing all fall and winter, open gyms on Saturdays help a lot too.

Q: Was the season more difficult because of the young team?

A: We had a lot more to learn but we kept improving through the season

Q: What was the best part of this year?

A: Enjoying all the fun times we had at practice! Everyday was fun!

Q: What was the hardest part about filling in last years seniors' roles?

A: Team dynamics change every year, I always looked up to the seniors and this year we were the ones being looked up to, its a cool feeling.

Q: What improvements did the team make this year?

A: Stick skills, field position and playing aggressively. We learned to pass on offense quickly and defense got really good.

Q: How would you say your team did overall this year?

A: We improved a lot and I think we did pretty well!

Baseball Exceeds Expectations

The boys baseball team wasn't supposed to win more than four games this year. It was supposed to be a rebuilding year, after losing fifteen seniors last year.

The year started to play out like that during the month of March when it seemed like the rain wouldn't stop. The team went 1-5 in the first six games. "Younger guys were put in a position they shouldn't have been in, so early in the season" said senior player Britt Meador After the spring break trip to Florida, it seemed like the team began to come together, and things began to change. There was a point when the team won six out of eight games in a seven day stretch.

The team closed out the year winning sectionals, but losing a close battle in the district semis against Reynoldsburg three to nothing. The team ended with a record of 15-11 and they were sectional champions.

The team worked hard before the season started by having morning workouts two times a week at 6 in the morning, and the tryouts lasted two and a half hours after school three days a week. After the season started the practices were two and a half hours after school each day. The new players began to improve as the nerve-wracking tryouts were over, and the team started to work better as a team. "We all had fun together, everyone picked each other up." said Meador. The new guys began to start learning their roles on the team as the season rolled on, and the record showed it.

The team has much to look forward to next season, as the young players began to peak towards the end of the season. "We were young this year, and the guys grew up from the beginning to the end of the year, the team will be stacked next year." said Meador.

Lady Wolves slide through pre-season soaks

The Lady Wolves started the way no one wants to start their season, a pre-season full of rain, causing 3 scrimmages to be cancelled. After a 1-4 start to their regular season, it seemed like the season might be a long one. "The preparation was difficult for the team. It was just hard to get everything in that we need with the rain. Practices can only do so much, but in softball you almost need to have game experience in the scrimmages to get off to a strong start," said senior Cathy McCoy. The team caught fire shortly after and picked up a 5 game win streak, also winning two games in the Worthington Classic. With the new and improved OCC foes including Westerville South, with one of the most dominating pitchers in the state and the OCC champions Pickerington Central, the Wolves finished 4-6 in league play, and fourth overall.

"Everyone played tough every game. Even after the slow start, none of the girls really lost their hope; we just knew that we would have to battle back to make the most of what was left of our season," said McCoy. The Lady Wolves seemed to be sprinting into the tournament with a win over Olentangy, and a huge 3-2 victory over Grove City. "Grove City is a really good team. It was great to beat them, though. We were almost sure that it would give us great momentum heading into the tournament," said McCoy.

Unfortunately, the Wolves season came to an end with a first round tournament loss to Bishop Watterson. "I'm really proud of everyone, and of course I wish the team the best of luck in the coming years," said McCoy.

Q & A with Boys Track Captain John Batchelder

Q: How would you describe the team's progress this year?
A: We made some good progress this year considering all the leadership and point scorers we lost last year.
Q: How did the team prepare before the season started?
A: Those who were not involved in a winter sport participated in indoor track and did basic conditioning and weightlifting.
Q: How did the team do at OCC's?
A: We had a hard time at OCC's because we lost some good seniors and our team is small and fairly inexperienced, but a lot of people stepped up and gained a 4th place finish.
Q: What was the best part of this year?
A: Damian showing up to practice in a full-body spandex. It was hot!
Q: What does the team need to do next year to meet its goals?
A: Get a base early, work hard and have confidence in themselves and in the team.
Q: What was the hardest part about filling in last years seniors' roles?
A: Making up and finding replacements for all the point scorers we lost.
Q: What major improvements did the team make this year?
A: Everyone got more dependant on each other instead of trying to do things by themselves.
and who we had.

Q & A with Girls Track Captain Abbey Johnson

Q: How would you describe the team's progress this year?
A: It was a rebuilding year but we had some really strong distance runners and stronger throwers. I think that there is a lot of potential in the freshman and sophomore class.
Q: How did the team prepare before the season started?
A: By doing other sports, or indoor track
Q: How did the team do at OCC's?
A: We got last – we don't have any depth and out team is so young.
Q: What was the best part of this year?
A: Our 4 x 800 relay being the first to ever win OCC's.
Q: What does the team need to do next year to meet its goals?
A: Train hard over the winter.
Q: What was the hardest part about filling in last years seniors' roles?
A: We had a strong senior class last year, and it was hard since I was the only senior.
Q: What was it like being the only senior on the team this year?
A: I thought it was going to be tough, but I became even closer with the younger girls. They were great moral support and I really had fun with them.
Q: What major improvements did the team make this year?
A: Even though we didn't do well in meets, everyone continto improve personally.
Q: How do you think the team did overall this year?
A: Since everyone improved personally, we improved overall as a team at each meet.

Boys Tennis

Boys Tennis team anticipates an excellent year

The boys tennis team looks ahead to a promising year as there are a couple new players this year. The tennis team ended its year last year winning OCC's, having a 13-3 record, and having three out of the seven varsity make it to the districts tournament, but this year goal of winning states will be a realistic goal.

Although they lost David Kim the senior class this year happens to be big on tennis. There are five seniors this year that are hoping to make a difference. Coach Metzmaier has urged returning players to work hard on their game in the off season. Many players turned to playing in tournaments and working hard at Indoor facilities in the winter.

New players such as Chris Yoon, who transferred from St. Charles, happen to be great prospects that are expected to help the team greatly. Although some of the new players are underclassmen, their tennis experience will carry them far. "They make the team deeper, than years before," said Kowalczyk.

If the boys can learn to work together as a team and know their roles as players, they will be able to make it far at states. The most important thing is to improve as a team this year because the team will be losing a great tennis senior class this year. "We need to improve volleying and doubles matches to beat better teams. Kilbourne and New Albany are the top two division one teams in the district. It will come down to these two teams who will represent central Ohio in the final four," Kowalczyk said.

Q & A With Lone Senior: Jon Jekeli

How did the team do overall this season? "We definitely surpassed the expectations and record from last year. Most people didn't expect us to do as well as we did."

What improvements had to be made? "It took us a while to really get everyone on the same page, but once we did things went smoothly. With so many new players, cohesiveness was a little challenging at first."

What was the best part of this year? "Our most defining games came during the Wolf Tournament (held here at Kilbourne). We all started clicking and good things came as a result."

What was the hardest part about being the only senior? "It really wasn't very hard to be the only senior because there was a lot of talent coming in from the younger grades, however; the lack of experience of our team as a whole could be a bit challenging at times. "

What should we expect from male volleyball in future years? "People should expect more of the same type of success in future years. The next step is making it to the State Final 4, and the ultimate goal is bringing home a State Champs banner for the gym."

"Hi, My name is Dan. First off, I am a Christian, and if you have a problem with it, then it is YOUR PROBLEM. Don't try to make it mine! I'm not going to shove my religion down your throat! So if you would like to hear my story, I would be glad to share it with you. I go to a community church. It's a non-denominational church. So I am not catagorized as a specific type of christianity. But I still believe what the Bible says and what the Lord says is truth! I am a very diverse person. I like all different types of music from rock-metal, rap and hip-hop-country. I am also really into classic rock! "The Doors" and "Pink Floyd" are two of my favorite classic rock bands! My friends, mean the world to me! Without them, life probably wouldn't be worth living. When I was younger, I was picked on a lot and I didn't have very many people to call my friends. So today, I cherish the people around me. The ones that make life worth living. I HATE BULLIES!!! I love helping people. That includes kids who are picked on, on a daily basis. School is important, but it doesn't mean a whole lot to me, so I don't mind getting suspended for sticking up for the little guy. It has happened a few times. I am 16 years old and I go to Worthington Kilbourne High School. I love meeting new people."

Two more years left of high school. It's junior year, so much has changed and so much has yet to happen. We are no longer under classmen so we now receive some respect from those younger than us. This is our year to really enjoy high school at its best. Driving, having more privileges, and enjoying late nights and a good group of friends. Q&A with class president, Andy Gotesman!

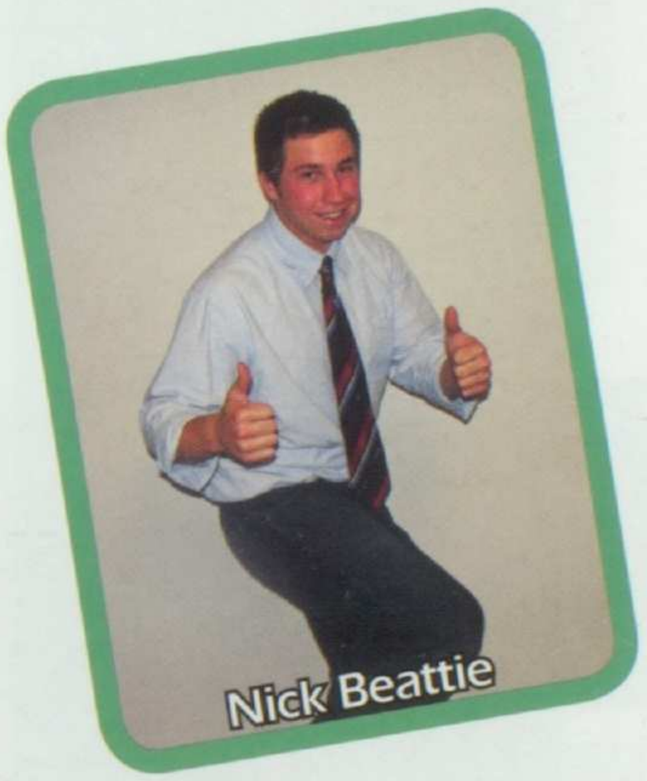
Q: How did you come up with the prom theme?

A: We really wanted to tie in '007 because of the year, and once we decided on that, we got a list of all the movie titles and came up with "Diamonds are Forever", because it's simple and the most appropriate for Kilbourne.

Q: What all went into planning prom?

A: We basically did everything that you saw at prom. We worked with the DJ to pick out the right type of music, worked with the Anthenaeum to get the lighting right, got tickets and mugs and worked with outside companies to make prom as awesome as possible.



Nick Beattie

Q: How much money did you raise for next year?

A: $1200

Q: What was your biggest accomplishment this year?

A: It would have to be seeing smiles as people were walking out of prom, satisfied with their prom. Prom took hundreds of hoursl so when people were satisfied, it was worth all the hard work.

Q: What do you look forward to most about next year's student council?

A: Our student body cabinet is made up of awesome people, with many different thoughts and ideas, so together the school is going to be a fun and active place to learn.

Define your perfect plan to take over the world...

"My perfect plan to take over the world would be to run around the United States naked so everyone can see. They would be so frightened that they would do whatever I would tell them to. If they would disobey me I would sic my incredibly large tiger Rasha from Aladdin on them for intimidation purposes. It would then be all over the news and I would be even more famous. I would rule the world until it got cold, so I could put my clothes back on. Then I would put my second plan into action...

*...to become king of the world. I would rule the world with my stunning good looks. I would wow people with how amazing I look and make them do stuff for me. I mean who could resist this face? Anyway, I would be on the face of every one-hundred dollar bill. Then I would find a mountain somewhere in Europe and have my face carved in it and have it named after me, as Mount Hersh. "...I attempted to throw a sweet pass to Vanessa, but you see, there was this old man on his bike, and unfortunately he just happened to get in the way of my awesome pass. The ball hit the back wheel on his bike, and it caused him to almost face plant off his bike. He was not particularly happy with Vanessa who was standing right next to him. He got control of his bike and turned around to flick us off. Jerk..."

- Vanessa Scott &
Ashley Decatur

When I was about ten years old, I was going sledding with my brother and cousins at Brookside. My brother and I decided that it would be cool to go down the bunny hill on an intertube together! We did pretty sweet for the first couple runs, so we decided to move on up in life and attempt to survive the deadly big hill. Nobody had mastered it yet. Then the time had come, we climbed all the way to the top and had a short prayer session. Then, I got in the front of the tube and my brother climbed in back and said, "We're going to go on three ok?!". So I counted off, "One, two.." and my brother pushed us off and it threw me off guard. So we started racing down the hill and my foot got caught and I fell off of the intertube and tumbled the rest of the way down the hill. I ended up breaking my arm because I hit a tree, but it was sweet and we were the only ones who were brave enough to do it!

Q & A with Jodi Eaton, Prospice Adviser

Haunted Hoedown

Yearbook sat down with the new Prospice adviser to get her take on their annual Halloween fundraiser. What was the total amount raised at the dance? The total this year was $826. What will that money be used for? Our DJ was $400, and the police security was $125. That left us with about $300. With that money we used $125 for decorations and the remaining $175 went to the printing costs of the Prospice magazine for the spring. What were the most creative costumes at the dance? We saw a lot of crazy costumes, but the best ones were the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles, firemen, hotdogs, a cow, and the 80's flash dancers. However, everyone looked great this year!

Sophomore Year... defined!

Sophomore year can be one of the best high school years. You're finally looked at as responsible and worthy of getting your liscense. You get to have the sweet 16 you've always dreamed of! Whether you go all out for it is up to you. Leave the worries of looking for college to the juniors and seniors. Despite OGT and still being an underclassman, this year should be enjoyable. Live, laugh, and love your sophomore year.

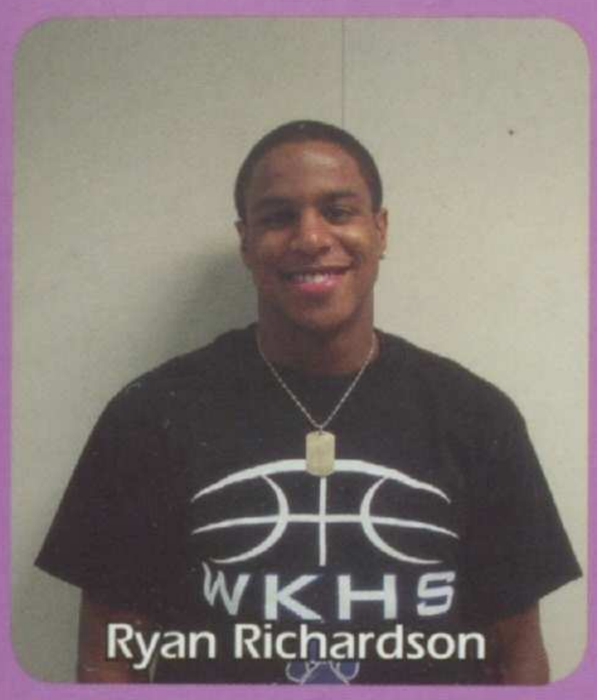
HOW WOULD YOU DEFINE YOUR SOPHOMORE YEAR?

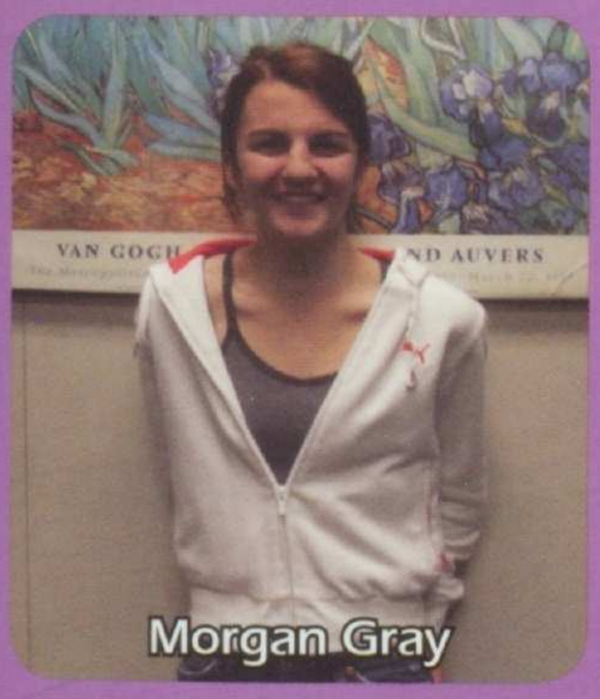
Melissa Hall

"My hardest year so far, but I'm just glad that I'm not a freshman anymore!!"



Ryan Richardson

"It's challening, but exciting at times and I have learned alot."



Morgan Gray

"Sophomore year is pretty hard, but I have alot more freinds and freedom."

Mike Johnson

"This year has been a learning year through my sports; football, basketball, and baseball"

Student Council '09

Yearbook sat down with sophomore class president, Sachi Oshima, to find out what goes on in student council.

What is your favorite student council activity you do all year?

Arts in Action! last year we all just ate cotton candy the whole day!

How many cans did you raise for the canned food drive?

905 cans

What is something your class student council did that you are most proud of?

Probably getting money together for prom and getting the Valentines day dance set up even though we had 3 snow days that week. Everyone worked so hard that week and we really pulled together.

Worthington Stars

Stars win eighth straight showdown

The 8th annual Battle of Worthington basketball game between the Worthington Stars and Worthington Ambassadors took place last Monday at Thomas Worthington High School. The annual basketball game has partnered up with Leadership Worthington since 2003 to put on the event.

The match-up pits the Stars, made up of special education students from both Kilbourne and Thomas, against the Ambassadors, made up of middle school basketball players across Worthington.

Before the game, Stars center Kurt Marshall sang the national anthem to the packed gymnasium.

After an NBA-like introduction of the players by ABC commentator and guest announcer Dimitrious Stanley, Worthington City School District superintendent Dr. Melissa Conrath tossed the opening tip-off.

The Stars took off to a commanding 7-0 lead and after a run and gun, action packed first half, they led the Ambassadors 23-18.

The Stars' also had their own nicknames which conveyed their playing style. "The traveler" and "the dribbler" both proved to be too much for the Ambassadors who heard a chorus of boos after each made basket from the decidedly Stars-friendly audience.

During half time, the Stars cheerleaders performed a choreographed dance routine and Stars players Daniel Vacarro and Joey Spadafora showed off their break dancing skills.

The second half provided just as many fireworks, with many threes drained by the Stars, and some stellar defense to match. The stars ran away with the game in the fourth quarter, winning the 8th annual Battle of Worthington.

Stages

As every flower fades and as all youth
Departs, so life at every stage,
So every virtue, so our grasp of truth,
Blooms in its day and may not last forever.
Since life may summon us at every age
Be ready, heart, for parting, new endeavor,
Be ready bravely and without remorse
To find new light that old ties cannot give.
In all beginnings dwells a magic force
For guarding us and helping us to live.

Serenely let us move to distant places
And let no sentiments of home detain us.
The Cosmic Spirit seeks not to restrain us
But lifts us stage by stage to wider spaces.
If we accept a home of our own making,
Familiar habit makes for indolence.
We must prepare for parting and leave-taking
Or else remain the slaves of permanence.
Even the hour of our death may send
Us speeding on to fresh and newer spaces,
And life may summon us to newer races.
So be it, heart: bid farewell without end.

Student Council '10

Shannon Donovan

Class President, Melanie Swick, answers some questions for the student body.

How does Student Council change when you come to high school?

The actions are similar but the effects are much more significant. I play a bigger role.

What qualities do you have that make you a good President?

It's always easy for me to communicate with other people and my ability to organize helps out the most.

Has being in student government changed you?

It has given me great leadership and people skills. It also helped me transition into highschool more easily.

Do you have any goals you would like to achieve here?

I have several small goals that involve being able to stay on top of everything, including financial needs.

Empty Bowl

The Roots and Shoots tradition raises awareness for organic foods throughout the community.

Roots and shoots, Key Club, ceramics, and FCS classes worked hard at the empty bowl dinner to make it successful. The dinner is designed to educate people on the importance of organic and locally produced foods. Organic and locally produced foods have many positive health benefits as well as environmental advantages. Going organic reduces health risks, and preserves the environment. Buying locally supports local economies, and local foods are also fresher and more nutritious.

The empty bowl dinner featured food donated by Whole Foods and ice cream donated by Hartzler's Dairy (an organic dairy manufacturer outside of Wooster, OH). The dinner raised awareness of foods that weren't full of preservatives and other artificial chemicals that were harmful to a body's health. Students learned that there were other healthy and tasty alternatives that were right under their noses. "I didn't know organic food tasted similar to non-organic food, and if its healthier then it's the better choice," said senior Cory Keny.

Empty bowl's profits were donated to the Children's Hunger Alliance, which is a local hunger fighting organization. The dinner also helped to raise students' understanding of poverty and hunger in our society. Members of Roots and Shoots and Key Club researched these topics and created signs about these issues to hang in the hallways.

The dinner was successful, when it raised over 600 dollars for the charity. "Our goal is always community based, education based, and the money is just icing on the cake. Every year the Children's Hunger Alliance is always pleased to have our donation," said Mrs. Woodrow. After leaving the dinner, students have a better awareness of the food choices there are around them. The next time students visit their local grocery they could put down the apple that has over 20-30 artificial poisons on the skin, and they could grab an organic apple.

"A group of students at Kilbourne heard of a problem, found a way to alleviate the pain of those involved, and took action. We bloom under pressure of affecting the lives of the children in Uganda. To do so, we got involved in Invisible Children Inc.'s Schools for Schools program. Through this we raise as much money as possible for Sacred Heart Secondary School in Gulu. So far we have helped to provide clean water; teacher and labratory supplies; a full library; and the beginnings of a perimeter wall for security purposes." -Becca Ewing

"Mock Trial is a club where you get to meet with friends and talk about your shared interest in law. At the beginning of the season, case materials are presented, which you must then read and study to prepare your case. The case, either civil or criminal, is the same case presented to all schools in the state of Ohio, which compete against each other in a simulated "mock" trial to become state champions. Along with learning about civil proceedings and law, members also learn about public speaking." -Stefanie Schulyk

RAV!NE REVIEW

The Ravine's year in review

This year, the Ravine received publicity to have another successful year, printing 26 issues- 3 times as many as the year before. Under the direction of co-editors-in-chief Alec Noble and Ben Strunk, the Ravine continued to improve the amount and quality of coverage of school and community events. The significantly larger staff worked tirelessly to put out an issue almost every week. As the production speed increased, the Ravine was able to highlight some of the major and minor events at the school, some of which may not have in the restricted years before. In April, some of the staff members traveled to Denver to enter their work in the national JEA competition for student journalists. Six Ravine staff members were awarded for their outstanding writing and photography. In addition, the staff sent 5 staff members (Ben Strunk, Morgan Augur, Annie Cercone, Katie Young and Michael Fisher) to journalism school.

Q&A with Becca Ewing

Becca Ewing

By Annie Cercone

How did you get involved with Invisible Children?

"Una Hrnjack at Thomas, I was in a group with her last year and she was telling me about how she saw the film and she wanted her whole school to see it. When she first said the name 'Invisible Children' it immediately interested me and kind of clicked with me. I picked up the film from her and watched it. I cried after I watched it and prayed for God to tell me what I could do to help these children. It worked out that I became the president of Global Aid Commission, so I had a base under me to help. They encouraged me to show the film to the school and get our school involved to help."

What have you done with the organization so far?

"I went to the Global Night Commute, it was on prom night last year. It was held to bring awareness about the Invisible Children. There were over 700 people from around Columbus, it was awesome. I then had to work with the main office in California to bring the film here so the school could see it."

What future plans do you have with the organization?

"A program called 'Schools for Schools'. A couple schools in the US receive a school in Uganda to raise money for. The goal for each school is $10,000- which sounds intimidating I know but we have lots of fundraisers planned to raise the money. All of the money goes directly to implementing projects like supplying adequate water, books, teachers, science labs, buildings and hopefully technology. These schools are all twenty years behind because of the wars. The school WKHS is supporting is Sacred Heart All Girls school. It used to be prestigious but has now been ruined because of the war."

by the numbers

33
staff members

26
issues

national awards won this year

5
staff members going to journalism school

How much money has been raised so far?

"About 2500 dollars. The librarians raised 640 dollars with the suckers, we made about 120 selling DVDs, which are still for sale! The photo auction should make about 450, and Nicole Londeree had a bake sale at her church which made 700 dollars!"

Do you ever plan to travel to Uganda or any other countries to help out even more?

"I would love to have the opportunity to go to Uganda, or anywhere. Invisible Children aren't only in Uganda they are all over the world. But this is what I want to do with my life, and I hope to someday travel to help Invisible Children"

Freshmen Day gets a facelift this year

Changes to freshman experience get mixed reviews

By: Ali Besser

Although to upperclassmen, the start of the 2006-2007 school year went like any other, the administration altered the freshmen experience entirely. With the inaugural year of the Freshman Mentorship program well underway, the freshman class, as well as faculty members and the junior and senior mentors, are buzzing about adjustments made.

During the spring of 2006, the idea of having a mentorship co-op between the upperclassmen and incoming freshman came to activities director, Ralph King. "The program is designed to provide freshmen with mentors to help them feel more comfortable at Kilbourne," said King, "We hope to make the class of 2010 more ready to meet the challenges of the new school year."

King then assembled a group of eighty-four juniors and seniors to serve as mentors to the incoming freshman class.

During the first of two day-long training sessions, led by Aaron Boe of Foresight Training Company, the mentors decided they wanted to see big changes in the set-up of freshman day.

> "The program is designed to provide freshmen with mentors to help them feel more comfortable at Kilbourne," said Mr. King.

Though freshmen still met in the morning for an assembly and went to meet all their first semester teachers, they spent most time with their mentorship groups.

Other additions included mentor planned skits displaying a year in the life of a Kilbourne student, as well as a group scavenger hunt, allowing freshmen an opportunity to explore Kilbourne more thoroughly.

Though a majority of the students found their mentors helpful, many now see the program as a hassle.

"I think it was very helpful on the first day, but continuing to meet the mentors is too much," said freshman Melanie Swick. "It would be better if we could just go to the mentors on our own time."

Many teachers still feel it is too early, however, to determine the reception among the freshman class.

Though many still debate how helpful the program will be, most believe it to be a step in the right direction.

Ellen Clark, Lauren Glaros, Nancy Smith and Ralph King advise the program.

PTO hosts teacher chuck wagon lunch

By Ben Strunk

Mr. Lane

On Thursday, the Kilbourne Parent-Teacher Organization (PTO) presented the WKHS staff with a Chuckwagon Lunch consisting of ribs, hot dogs, potato salad, and other country dishes.

Principal Ed Dunaway, Asst. Principal Ken Nally, Athletic Director Bill Weary, and history teacher Roland Lane helped cook the delicious meal.

Lane's barbeque ribs highlighted the meal. Teachers carried plates full of BBQ ribs throughout the school day. Some lucky students even managed to snag a bite.

According to fellow history teacher John Jordan, Lane began baking ribs at Wednesday at 3 pm in the FCS cooking lab. Every single oven held three trays of ribs. For six hours, Lane remained in the lab grading papers and periodically emptying the grease from each rib pan to prevent the lab from taking on a permanent rib stench. At 9 pm, when the ribs finally finished cooking, Lane hand painted each piece of meat with his special barbecue sauce.

Finally, at 10:20, Lane went home, only to return at 7 am on Thursday to warm up his patented dish. Overall, Lane spent 9+ hours cooking ribs for the luncheon.

"I almost got through the day without spilling sauce on myself; Superintedant Melissa Conrath arrived just in time to see me spill mustard on my shirt," said Lane.

Academy prepares aspiring teachers

By Alec Noble

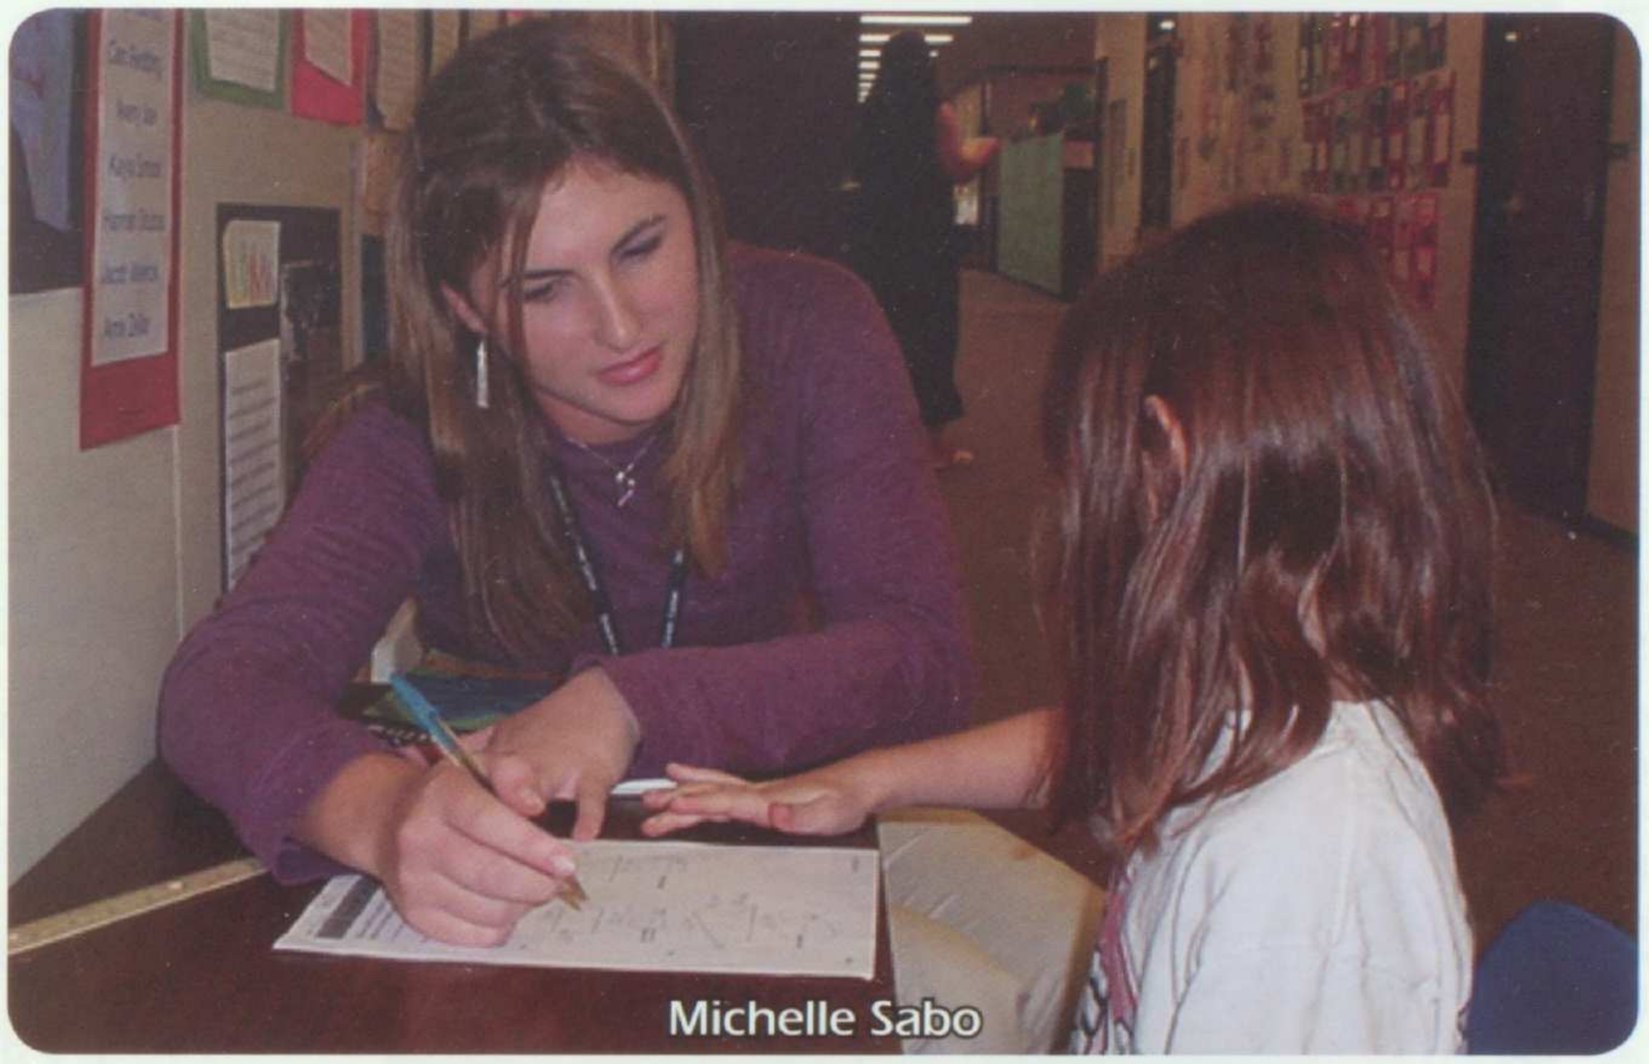
For the first time in the school's history, WKHS will be offering the Teacher Academy program to students for three periods a day at the school, where as in previous years students participated through the Delaware Area Career Center.

With the new accommodations, students in the program will be able to continue with regular classes at WKHS without having to accommodate travel between WKHS and the Ohio State-Delaware Center, where the program currently holds class.

The WKHS-branch of the Teacher Academy will provide students who wish to pursue teaching as a career the opportunity to learn about the principles and theories of teaching while gaining valuable lessons through 3 field-experiences alongside Worthington teachers in 9 week cycles. During the three 9-week cycles students will work with early childhood students (grades K-3) middle childhood students (grades 4-9) and either special needs or adolescent/young adult students (grades 7-12) for the final 9-weeks.



Michelle Sabo

"During the field experiences, the students shadow master teachers in Worthington schools, teach lessons, read to students, prepare bulletin boards, go on field trips, help with recess, lunch, and specials, and many other exciting teacher tasks," says Mary Lykens, who has headed the program for 5 years.

95% of students who complete the program continue on to get a teaching degree.

Students establish calendar business

By Erica LeGault

The students of Ms. Hebert's College Prep Business class sold and advertised customized calendars during the recent weeks leading up to Christmas Break.

Kilbourne Kalendars, the name of the student produced company, offered 8" x 11" sized calendars. The calendars ranged from a base price of $6 to around $10 depending on the amount of pictures provided and choice of color. Each calendar also included all late arrivals, no school days, and breaks.

The College Prep Business course prepares students for college level business classes and the real world spectrum of business. Every year the curriculum requires that the class, with the guidance of a Junior Achievement of Central Ohio consultant (this year Jeff Sturgeon), creates and operates a company from start to finish.

Approaching the holiday season and a new year, Kilbourne Kalendars made a much-appreciated gift for friends and family. Many students also gave them to seniors as a form of memorie books.

"This small corporate company that is developing in College Prep Business is an awesome process to advice and observe. It's amazing to see a group of 21 students come together as a small public company, to observe the business understanding and creativity that each individual has to give, to see the leadership skills develop, and the progress made towards production and sales," said College Prep Business teacher Jenell Hebert.

Michael,

At every stage of your life, you have challenged our assumptions, broadened our perspectives and brought us great joy. We are so very proud of you and so grateful that God blessed us to have you in our lives. Pursue your dreams, stay true to values, enjoy your life.

We love you! - Mom & Dad

Sarah Michelle Sterbenz

Sarah,

From the moment we saw you, we were filled with love and joy. Your caring spirit, perseverance, playfulness & faith have helped you to grow into the strong and beautiful young woman that you are today.

Always remember that God is the rock and strength that will guide you and comfort you through life's journey.

We feel blessed that God has allowed us to share your life.

Love,

Mom & Dad

1 "I love you O LORD, my strength." 2 The LORD is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer, My God, my rock, in whom I take refuge; My Shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold. Psalm 18:1-2

Alexandria Danielle Allison

Alex,

You have brought so much joy and sunshine to our family and the lives of all you have touched. We are very proud of your accomplishments in school and in life and can't wait to see what the future holds for you! Good luck at Indiana University! We love you and will miss you very much!

- Mom, Dad, Sean & Maggie

Paige Ann Perfect

Paige,

You have reached one of the many milestones that lie ahead of you. We have watched you grow into a beautiful young woman and we couldn't be more proud of you. There are so many wonderful things that you will experience in college and in the next several years to come. Embrace each day and enjoy every moment for they are precious gifts. We love you with all our hearts and wish you all the happiness and success that you deserve. Remember we are always here for you. Congratulations Poopie!

In Memory of Ryan Scott Brasser
Class of 2007

The Empty Place

There is an empty place in my home.
An empty place in my heart.
And always the question why?
Why do unspeakable painful events occur in life?
Why is it so difficult?
Why is it so unfair?
Why can't I have the answers?
The empty place is not just his place at the table, or on the sofa, or a bedroom no longer slept in.
The empty place is more than not having him to be with, to toss the football with, to play basketball with, to bike together, to tease, argue, laugh, joke around... to be brothers...
And this empty place cannot be filled with anything.
It's just there. It just exists.
A gaping hole, a wound that won't heal.
It makes me question many things in life.
It makes me feel like what I knew is no longer valid.
Death made the empty place. It took my brother and now I have this empty place instead. I wish instead of the empty place he was still here filling it with his presence.
